ADULT INSTITUTE OPENS

Wednesday Classes to Begin This Week

This Wednesday evening, October 29th at 8:00 P.M. sessions will begin at the Kehilath Jeshurun Adult Institute. The Institute, which has been holding sessions for the past several years with ever increasing success, is designed to bring to its students the finest opportunities in Adult Jewish Education.

Sessions will start this Wednesday for the three regular weekly classes which will continue to meet until Passover. The first of these, the Talmud class, actually began last week preceding the formal opening of the Institute.

Classes in Hebrew

Two new classes will begin the study of Hebrew this week. Both classes are designed to give their students a knowledge of Hebrew in the form of reading, comprehension and speech. One class is an elementary one for those who either have no knowledge of Hebrew, or whose acquaintance with the language is extremely limited. It will be taught by Mr. Joseph Fuchs, the Principal of the Park East Religious School.

The second class is an intermediate one for students who have already attained some level of fluency in reading and possess a reasonable degree of comprehension. It will be taught once again by Mrs. Alice Rothkowitz, an instructor at the Park East Religious School. Mrs. Rothkowitz has met with considerable success in teaching this class for the past few years.

It need hardly be added that many of our members would benefit greatly from these classes. They will enable a student to read and understand the prayers. They will render a trip to Israel more enjoyable and rewarding, and they will equip a mother or father to appreciate what their children learn in school in their religious studies.

Lecture Series Begins Next Week

In addition to the weekly classes, the Institute will offer a lecture on the first Wednesday of every month from November through April. The general topic will be "A Historical Portrait of the Jew." Six different lecturers will discuss the various periods of Jewish History from Abraham until the establishment of the State of Israel. The first lecture will be given by Rabbi Haskel Lookstein (the only "non-professional" among the six) on Wednesday, November 5th at 9:00 P.M. His topic will be "2000 B.C.E.—586 B.C.E. The Birth and Growth of a People." The lectures are open to all our readers and their friends.

This summary represents only one small part of our Adult Institute. A complete printed brochure will be sent

FATHER AND SON MINYAN OPENS WITH RECORD ATTENDANCE

Some sixty young men and women attended the opening services of the Father and Son Minyan last Sunday morning. The services were beautiful and inspiring, the breakfast delectable and nutritious, the gym period spirited and invigorating. The highlights of the program were the warm words of William Lebowitz at breakfast welcoming the participants, and the inspiring talk of Elgin Shulsky in praising the Minyan and its leader Rabbi Haskel Lookstein, who is beginning his eighth year in charge of this activity.

Gerald Kaufman Assists

A surprise for the boys came with the announcement that our new member, Gerald Kaufman, will assist the Assistant Rabbi in running this program. Gerry will be in charge primarily of the gym period but will be active in prayer and breakfast as well. Himself a Minyan graduate from his days at Ramaz, he is a welcome addition to our program.

Aaron Holzer A Sponsor

Still another surprise was in the offing when it was announced that interested members of the Congregation may serve as sponsors of the breakfast. Last week's breakfast was sponsored by Elgin Shulsky, president of the Men's Club. Next week's breakfast will be sponsored by young Aaron Holzer, the youngest member of the minyan, who asked to be a joint sponsor with his father, our devoted member Abraham I. Holzer.

All in all this was quite an opening day. If you happened to miss it by chance, be sure to be with us this Sunday at 9:30.

A "TIMELY" REMINDER

This coming Sunday, October 26th at 2:00 A.M. marks the end of Daylight Saving Time in our area. Please note that all synagogue services and activities beginning with the 8:30 minyan on Sunday morning are on Eastern Standard Time. Note, also, the new early time for evening services, beginning this Sunday evening at 4:45 P.M.

DANIEL JOSEPH GOODMAN BAR MITZVAH

Heartiest Mazel Tov wishes to Mrs. Anne Goodman upon the Bar Mitzvah of her son Daniel Joseph.

As a student of the Religious School of the Congregation for the past four years, Daniel Joseph has shown a great interest in Jewish History. He is, at present, attending Junior High School 22 in the Bronx. His favorite subject is science and he is looking forward to a career as a chemist. His main hobbies include stamp and coin collecting, as well as the building of model planes and boats. He is also a member of the mathematics coaching club at school.

Daniel will be Bar Mitzvah in our Synagogue this Sabbath and will chant the Maftir and Haftarah.

The family of the Bar Mitzvah boy will be hosts at Kiddush to the entire congregation.

For Your Consideration

The outstanding quality of Judaism is its concern for knowledge. To the Jew, studying the Torah is a form of worship. The knowledge of the Hebrew language, the Jewish heritage, and the history of our people should be a never ending pursuit on the part of every Jew, man and woman, young and old. The rewards of such study are, according to the Talmud, both extensive and permanent. The Adult Institute is designed to bring to its students the fruits of Jewish knowledge. It remains for each of you to reap the potential rewards by your active participation.
