FATHERS AND SONS OBSERVE A FAST

A fine group of fathers and sons began the vacation period with a special service commemorating the Fast of the Tenth of Tevet. Special prayers were received, the nature of the day was discussed, and a pious mood marked the services.

Leading the prayers as cantors were Mark Wallach, Jonathan Wouk, Ian Schorr, and Charles Trauring. The Torah was read beautifully by Nat Mayer. Many of those present witnessed a weekday fast service for the first time. It was a most worthwhile experience.

We would like to note the names of the participants in our second Chanukah service on December 14th. The cantors were David Lesser, Jonathan Wouk and Jerry Bruss. The Torah was read by Raymond Brenner.

A cordial invitation is extended to all fathers and sons to attend the special vacation minyans this week and next week. The time is 9:30 A.M.

MIZRACHI HATZAIR NOTICE

The Mizrachi Hatzair Senior meeting, originally scheduled for Sunday evening, January 11th, has been postponed due to a conflict of dates. The meeting, which will feature a Book Review of "The Exodus", has been rescheduled for Sunday evening, February 1st. We regret any inconvenience which this change may cause to chapter members.

JUNIOR CONGREGATION

The Junior Congregation minyan continues to grow. This past month David Kahn was elected president and David Popkin vice-president. During Chanukah Martin Rosenberg chanted the Hallel and David Kahn read the Torah. Last Saturday Aaron Holzer and Norman Hellman acted as the cantors.

Your child will enjoy attending this service each week. Send him every Saturday morning at 10:15.

ANCESTORS OF CONTEMPORARY JEWRY TO BE DISCUSSED AT THIRD OPEN LECTURE

The third lecture of the Kehilath Jeshurun Adult Institute Open Lecture Series will be delivered by Dr. Irving Agus in the Synagogue Social Hall on Wednesday, January 7th, 1959 at 9:00 P.M.

As part of the general theme "A Historical Portrait of the Jew", this lecture will cover the backgrounds of the Medieval Period. The rise of Christianity, the barbarian invasions of Rome, and the generally bleak nature of the Dark Ages had a deleterious effect upon our ancestors in Italy. Their miraculous survival against overwhelming historical odds made possible the existence of contemporary Jewry.

Our lecturer is eminently qualified to render a penetrating account of this fascinating period in Jewish history. A graduate of New York University, an outstanding scholar of the Talmud, he received his Ph.D. from Dropsie College. An author and editor of several historical works, he is a professor of Jewish History at Yeshiva University specializing in the Medieval Period.

Dr. Agus promises to maintain the high level of scholarship and interest which marked the last Adult Institute Lecture. You will not want to miss his fascinating story. Come with your family and friends for what promises to be an extremely interesting intellectual experience.

Remember the date: Wednesday, January 7th, at 9:00 o'clock.

•

Refreshments will be served

Two decades of continuous service to the Synagogue and the community will be celebrated by the Kehilath Jeshurun Men's Club at its Annual Dinner on Thursday evening, January 15th, 1959. This signal event, unique among Men's Club groups around the nation which are affiliated with orthodox congregations, will climax twenty years of fruitful growth and development of our Men's Club.

In recognition of the devoted efforts of one who was the architect of this group and whose imprint is still noted in all phases of its activity, the Men's Club has selected as its Guest of Honor on this occasion Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein.

In the course of this score of years the Men's Club initiated the successful Father and Son Minyan, instituted summer camp scholarships for deserving youngsters, raised tens of thousands of dollars for religious educational scholarship aid and participated generously in numerous worthy communal endeavors.

The group has been most fortunate in having men like Ira F. Weisman, Hyman I. Bucher and Dr. Robert Wallach to guide and direct its affairs during their terms as president.

The Dinner Committee, under the capable chairmanship of Ira F. Weisman, has planned a gala evening filled with reminiscences and good fellowship.

You will not want to miss this never to be forgotten event in the history of the Kehilath Jeshurun Men's Club. You have received invitations in the mail. Please let us know of your intended participation by communicating with the Synagogue Office.

KIDDUSH HOSTS

On Saturday morning, January 3rd the Sabbath Kiddush will be sponsored by our esteemed members Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rosen.

If any of our members wish to act as Kiddush hosts, they may call the Synagogue Office to reserve a Sabbath.

ADULT INSTITUTE NOTICE
