NEW YEAR BOOK ADS RECEIVED Campaign Moves Into High Gear

We are happy to note the accelerated activity on behalf of the Congregation's 1959 Year Book. Leading the list of ad getters are Mr. Jules Podell, Mr. Al Feiner and Mr. Samuel Goldberg. During the past several weeks, substantial sums were solicited by Mr. Jerry Coan, Mr. Samuel Frank, Mr. Oscar Perlberger, Mr. Nathan Salzman and Mr. Romie Shapiro.

In order to broaden the participation in this effort, each of our members will receive advertising folders for the current campaign during the coming week. If we are to attain the goal of twenty five thousand dollars, the continued efforts of our entire congregational family will be required. Every possible assistance of our synagogue office staff is available to those who wish to join the company of ad-solicitors for the year book. Please feel free to call upon us.

Year Book in Congressional Library

The Library of Congress has acknowledged with thanks and appreciation their receipt of the 1958 Year Book as a "valued addition to its collections." Additional letters of appreciation have arrived from various outstanding institutions and libraries who have received the volume.

PARK EAST RELIGIOUS SCHOOL ELECTS PERMANENT OFFICERS

Nathan Salzman Board Chairman

The Park East Religious School which has established itself firmly in the past six months as a first rate Talmud Torah, now has a slate of officers to help guide its destinies.

At a meeting of its School Board on January 27th, officers were elected from the two sponsoring Congregations, Orach Chaim and Kehilath Jeshurun.

The new chairman of the board is our esteemed trustee Mr. Nathan Salzman. Others from our congregation who were elected to office include Dr. Victor Wouk, Secretary; Mr. Elgin Shulsky, member of the Finance Committee and Mr. Joseph Perlman and Dr. Wouk, members of the Education Committee.

These men have been very active during the first term of the school. Their formal election to office merely emphasizes the devoted efforts which they have already expended on behalf of Talmud Torah education in our community.

Our congratulations to them upon their election, our thanks to them for their past efforts, and our hopes are extended to them for a long tenure of fruitful and rewarding labor in the future.

Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein will preach this Sabbath at 11:00 a.m.

FROM THE K.J. ARCHIVES

We are happy to continue the column begun last week which resurrects historical information from the past concerning our congregation.

November 22, 1878

In an article in "The Jewish Messenger": "Congregation Kehilath Jeshurun holds weekly Sabbath services in Par-epa Hall, Yorkville." Mr. S. E. Hart, who is a member, delivered a very touching sermon lately to an audience of over three hundred persons, and is now the regular lecturer of the congregation.

September 21, 1883

The following advertisement appeared in "The American Hebrew". "Congregation Kehilath Jeshurun; 82nd Street near Lexington Avenue. The new building of this congregation will be ready for services for the holidays and seats can now be secured. The building is in an excellent location. Prices for seats are $5, $3, $2 according to location." (ed. note: Perhaps that is why they are called the "good old days".)
