DR. BERNARD LANDER ADDRESSES ADULT INSTITUTE

Last week an enthusiastic audience heard Dr. Bernard Lander director of the Bernard Revel Graduate School at Yeshiva University discuss the topic "Modern Jewish Life — A Continuous Struggle for Survival".

In this final lecture of our Adult Institute Open Lecture Series, over seventy-five students heard Dr. Lander distinguish between the various approaches to the solution of the "Jewish Problem". He discussed the solutions of assimilation, isolation, nationalism, and integration. This last approach of integration represents the contribution of Samson Raphael Hirsch who was the architect of Modern Orthodox Judaism, a movement which advocates the integration of the knowledge, values, and spirit of the Torah with the intellectual climate of modern life. Its formula is succinctly contained in the slogan of Yeshiva University — "Torah and Science".

Dr. Lander provided a fitting climax to a wonderful Adult Lecture series. The average attendance at our six lectures was over eighty. On one occasion we had as many as one hundred and ten. Some twenty students attended all six lectures and thereby received credit for this course from the Yeshiva University Department of Adult Education.

Our Adult Institute is coming to an end for this season. The last sessions of the three regular classes will be held this Wednesday evening. In a future issue of the Bulletin we will summarize our achievements and present the roster of students.

FATHER AND SON MINYAN TO CONCLUDE WITH TRIBUTE TO WILLIAM LEBOWITZ

William Lebowitz

YOUNG MARRIEDS

The Kehilath Jeshurun Young Marrieds Group will hold its next meeting this Saturday night, April 11th, at 8:30. This fifth meeting of the year will be devoted to a discussion of the problem of Church and State in Israel.

The problem may best be phrased in a series of questions. Can a modern state be conducted strictly according to the Torah? If so, how? Should the State of Israel be governed according to Torah Law? If so, why? Should there be a distinction in our view towards Church and State in America on the one hand and in Israel on the other? If so, do we thereby render one a democracy and the other a theocracy?

These and other related questions will be discussed by the group next Saturday night at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Theodore Fink, 110 East End Ave. If you are a member of the Young Marrieds please come. If you would like to be a member please contact the Synagogue office.

This Sunday morning, April 12th, at 9:30, the Father and Son Minyan will conclude its 1958-59 season. Climaxing 25 weeks of successful activity, the Minyan will dedicate its final service to Mr. William Lebowitz who, for the past five years, has been the chairman of this activity for the Men's Club.

It is difficult to describe in the context of a Bulletin article the qualities of leadership and the sincere contributions which Bill Lebowitz has rendered to the Minyan. Suffice it to say that in the past few years he has hardly ever missed a service of the Minyan, he has gained for it the financial support necessary for its maintenance, and he has served as an inspiration to the worshippers at the Minyan, young and old alike.

We would like to have an overflow Minyan this Sunday to honor one who is liked by everybody and who is doing a wonderful job in a modest way. Please be sure to come down with your friends to this special final service of the Father and Son Minyan.

"FATHER'S DAY"

It is incumbent upon us to record for posterity the results of "Father's Day" at the Minyan last week. Four fathers tried their hand at the cantorial art and merged from their trial successfully. They were Max Shor, William Lebowitz, Abraham I. Holzer and Dr. Victor Wouk. In the case of two of them we could not help noticing a Galician strain in their pronunciation. This, of course, the boys at the Minyan as broad minded Americans were quite willing to excuse.

It was a lot of fun and represented a high point in this year's Minyan season. Our thanks to the participants.

Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein will preach this Sabbath at 11:00 A.M.

MATZOH PLANT VISITED BY RELIGIOUS SCHOOL STUDENTS

The students of the Park East Religious School visited the matzoh factory of the Horowitz-Margareten Company as part of their Passover curriculum. The visit which was made this week gave each youngster an opportunity to see the automatic matzoh baking plant in action. The teachers and pupils were fascinated at by the various ingenious devices used to prepare and bake the unleavened bread.

It was an unforgettable experience and an exciting prelude to Passover.
