PASSOVER NOTES

There are several important matters that should be borne in mind during the Passover season.

"Kosher for Passover"

A label bearing the inscription, "Kosher for Passover" is permissible for Passover use. Unfortunately, there are the unscrupulous who take advantage, and the credulous who fall prey. Whatever food article, therefore, that is purchased for Passover and which requires endorsement should indicate that it has the approval of a recognized rabbi or rabbinic organization. When in doubt inquire in the Synagogue Office.

Search for Chometz

On Tuesday evening, April 21st, every Jewish home should be inspected to make sure that all chometz has been removed. Like every religious practice, there is a ceremony connected with this inspection. It is well to observe that ceremony, not alone because it is a religious requirement, but because it affords an opportunity to impress the children of every household. The benedictions to be recited are found in any standard Haggadah.

Disposal of Chometz

No chometz may be eaten on Wednesday April 22nd, after 9:35 A.M. All chometz must be completely disposed of by 10:35 Wednesday morning.

Service for First Born

Passover eve is a traditional fast for the first born. It is obligatory upon every first born who cannot observe the fast on Wednesday, April 22nd, to attend the special service on that day and to participate at its conclusion in the light collation that is served. The services for the first born (Siyum Bechorim) will be held in the Chapel on Wednesday, April 22nd, as part of the regular morning service which will begin at 7:30.

Sale of Chometz

The ritual "Sale of Chometz" must be completed by early Wednesday morning, April 22nd. There are those who prefer to perform this ritual in person. Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein will be available for that purpose, beginning with Sunday morning, April 19th. Those who cannot attend to this in person, may use the form provided at the bottom of the page. Please be sure that it is in the Rabbi's possession before Wednesday morning.

YOUNG MARRIEDS DISCUSS ISRAEL

Last Saturday night, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Theodore Fink, nine young married couples and one engaged duo met to discuss the marriage of Church and State in Israel.

Under the leadership of Rabbi Haskel Lookstein the group analyzed the peculiar problems of Israel as it tries to find a formula for maintaining traditional Jewish values without restricting individual liberty. The possibility of a modern state observing the Sabbath was explored and found to be quite feasible. The relationship of a non-religious Jew to a religious state was also discussed.

The group set its next meeting for Sunday night May 31st at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Zuckerman. At that time Rosemiriam Zuckerman will lead a discussion of "Exodus" by Leon Uris.

SISTERHOOD LUNCHEON SCORES TRIUMPH

The Savoy Hilton Hotel was the scene last Wednesday of this year's Sisterhood Annual Donor Luncheon. And what a beautiful scene it was!

The gaily draped tables, the magnificent dais, the beautiful floral center pieces, the overall harmony of light and color — all combined to make the setting impressive to the utmost.

More than two hundred members and guests of the Sisterhood were there. It was the largest gathering that ever attended a Sisterhood Luncheon. Mrs. Meyer Texon, President of the Sisterhood, welcomed the Assembly with her usual charm. She introduced Mrs. Joseph S. Gershman, Chairman of the Luncheon Committee, who presided during the afternoon. The Toastmistress conducted the proceedings with wit, vivaciousness, and brightness. Her sense of humor was captivating. She paid tribute to her Luncheon Co-Chairmen, Mrs. Reuben Popkin and Mrs. Elgin Shulsky.

Greetings were delivered by Mr. Max J. Etra, President of the Congregation, and by Mr. Elgin Shulsky, President of the Men's Club. Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein was the principal speaker, and his address on the theme "The Need for Sincerity" was most warmly received.

A highlight of the afternoon was an unusual Fashion Show presented through the courtesy of Mme. Sydel. After the Fashion Show, Mrs. Hyman Abrams, Chairman of Arrangements, presided over the drawing for the numerous and attractive gifts donated by friends and well-wishers. Mrs. Abrams was assisted by Mrs. Reuben Popkin, Mrs. Sarah Rosentover, Mrs. Edward Lebowitz, Mrs. A. Milton Brown, and Mrs. Eugene Hollander.

Many deserve thanks and tribute for their contributions to the success of the undertaking. Special thanks to the Feinberg Twins for their original design of the invitations; to Mrs. A. Milton Brown for the gift wrappings; and to Mrs. Joseph Roth for the gift ribbons.

It was, indeed, a remarkable luncheon, one that will be hard to surpass. Yet the ingenuity of the Sisterhood and the creativeness of its members are such that we may expect improvement even when we think perfection has been achieved.

NINETY ATTEND FINAL FATHER AND SON MINYAN SEASON CLOSED WITH TRIBUTE TO WILLIAM LEBOWITZ

Close to ninety fathers, sons, mothers, and daughters attended the concluding service of the season at the Father and Son Minyan last Sunday. The record turnout was at once an indication of the Minyan's popularity and a fitting tribute to the guest of honor, William Lebowitz.

Leading the service were four young cantors who won their liturgical wings at the Minyan: Aaron Holzer, Jon Mills, Jonathan Wouk, and George Baumgarten. Speakers at the breakfast were Elgin Shulsky, on behalf of the Men's Club, and Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein.

The Rabbi discussed the contributions of William Lebowitz to the Minyan and the importance of the Minyan to the Congregation. In a nostalgic moment he reminisced about the late Alex Garfein and his part in the early days of the Minyan.

As a token of appreciation Mr. Shulsky presented to Mr. Lebowitz a complete set of the Soncino edition of the Bible. Mr. Lebowitz, visibly moved by the proceedings, responded graciously in the presence of his two sons and grandson.

This was an appropriate climax to the tenth season of the Minyan, a season which has covered twenty six consecutive weeks since October. During this period forty six boys served as Cantor at least once. Some served as many as eight times.

The average attendance was above forty. Five or six girls regularly attended services. Young Aaron Holzer was the season's "iron man." He was present at every service.

MEN'S CLUB CONVENTION SET FOR DECORATION DAY WEEKEND

The Yeshiva University National Association of Men's Clubs will hold its third Annual Convention on May 29th, 30th and 31st at the Pioneer Country Club, in Greenfield Park, N. Y.

Past conventions have been get-togethers replete with the warmth and spirit of true fellowship, combined with learning and religious inspiration.

Workshop sessions and lecture programs add much to the enjoyment of this event. Reservations for the three day weekend are $65 per couple and $35 single, gratuities included.

As in the past the Minyan was directed by Rabbi Haskel Lookstein. This year, however, it benefited from the presence of Gerald Kaufman as assistant director. He deserves thanks for his sincere efforts in behalf of the minyanaires.

If you have not attended regularly this year, there isn't much that can be done. There will be no service at 9:30 next week. We suggest, however, that you record Sunday, November 1, 1959 in your date book. On that day, please God, we will inaugurate our second decade. Remember the date; the time will be 9:30 as usual.
