

MEN'S CLUB SILVER ANNIVERSARY DINNER A CROWNING SUCCESS

Ira F. Weisman Honored at Jubilee Event

Sam Levenson Recalls Bygone Days

CONSTRUCTION BEGINS

On Thursday morning, a roaring bulldozer began excavating on the site where our new building will rise. This is the first step in the building process which will bring to our congregation and Ramaz School the finest and most modern facilities for our institutional and educational needs.

The look of pleasure and excitement on the faces of the youngsters as they watch the excavation in progress should serve as an inspiration to those who are making the new building possible.

We intend to present to our readers through the medium of the Bulletin a photographic progress report of the building activity in the weeks ahead.

Shortly after 11:00, last Tuesday evening, two participants in the Twenty-Fifth Anniversary Dinner of the Kehilath Jeshurun Men's Club were emerging from the Hotel Croydon. One said to the other: "This was an unforgettable evening — the nicest affair of its kind that I can ever remember."

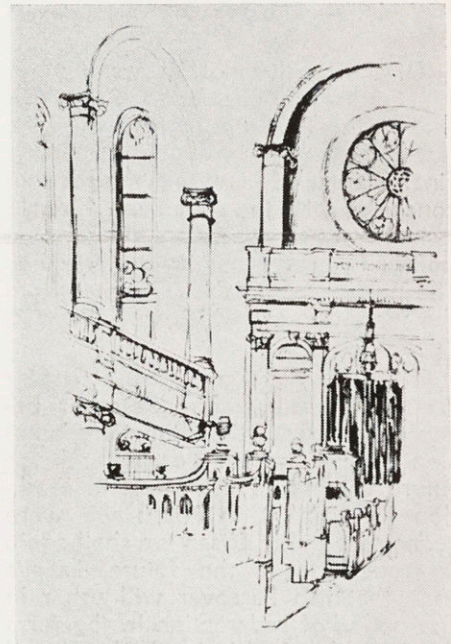

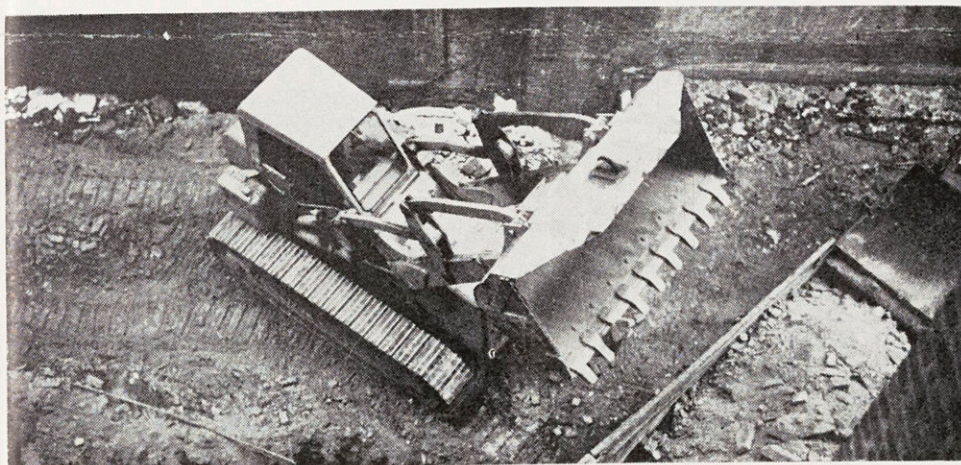

This remark — and others like it — was heard over and over again following the conclusion of the testimonial dinner to Ira F. Weisman on Tuesday, March 10th. From start to finish it was an occasion which can only be described in superlatives.

A capacity gathering filled every available space in the main dining hall at the Croydon. The service was excellent, the spirit warm and congenial, the mood nostalgic and sentimental. Many members from the past were present to review old times. The women were out in force to greet the guest of honor.

Evening's Program

The entire program and all aspects of the anniversary celebration was planned by a committee headed by Hyman I. Bucher. The others on the committee were: Milton Eletz, Co-Chairman, Nico de Graaff, Abraham R. Kirshon, William Lebowitz, Dr. Jack Lieberman, Martin Markson and Elgin Shulsky.

Mr. Bucher chaired the evening's program, which began after cocktails and a delicious dinner. At the outset, each guest received a beautiful reproduction of a sketch of our Main Synagogue. The sketch, entitled "Kehilath Jeshurun — An Impression", was the work of art of the Feinberg Twins.

"A SALUTE TO THE NEW CHIEF RABBI OF ISRAEL"

His Problems and Opportunities

THE WEEKLY PORTION

"SHABBAT haGADOL"

This Sabbath is called in Jewish tradition, "Shabbat haGadol". There are several reasons for this title. The title probably comes originally from the fact that the Jews in Egypt took a lamb for the Passover sacrifice on the tenth day of Nisan, in advance of the exodus on the fifteenth day. This marked the beginning of the redemption, for, by taking the lamb, the most sacred of animals in the Egyptian cult, the Jews were renouncing idolatry in favor of the service of the one God.

Tradition has it that the fifteenth day of Nisan was on a Thursday that year. The tenth day was, therefore, a Sabbath. The Sabbath before Passover is, consequently, called the Great Sabbath because it marked the ascendancy of God and the beginning of the greatness of his servants, the Jewish people.

Another adequate explanation for the name of this Sabbath is that the name is derived from the outstanding personality who used to address the people in ancient times on the Sabbath before Passover. There was a Torah lecture delivered every Sabbath by one of the scholars in a given community. The Sabbath before Passover, however, was reserved for the greatest of the scholars, whence the name "Shabbat haGadol" — The Sabbath of the Great One.

Of course, the most obvious reason for the name "Shabbat haGodol" is that on this Sabbath we read from the last of the prophets — Malachi. In the final chapter of his work, the prophet concludes with the statement: "Behold I shall send to you Elijah the Phophet before the great and awesome day." The name of the Sabbath comes from the word "great" which in Hebrew is "gadol".

It is customary to read this chapter on the Sabbath before Passover because it speaks of the ultimate redemption of the Jewish People and the future coming of the Messiah. Tradition has it that in Nisan we were redeemed and in Nisan we shall again be redeemed in the future. Let us pray that this Passover will usher in the period of redemption in the form of a world united in brotherhood and blessed with security, justice, and above all, peace.

RABBI HASKEL LOOKSTEIN ON TOUR

Last week Rabbi Haskel Lookstein was the guest lecturer for the Young Israel of Brookline, Massachusetts Forum Series. Speaking before a large group of Young Israelites and parents of the Maimonides Day School in Boston, the Rabbi's topic was: "Inside the Day School Movement — Its Premises and Promises."

Earlier in the week, our Associate Rabbi was the guest speaker at the Yavneh Society of Barnard and Columbia. He addressed them on the subject: "Is Judaism Anti-Intellectual?"

YOUTH CORNER

The Teenage Group will mark its Fourth Cultural Luncheon on Saturday, March 21. Mr. Everyman is the defendant in the Luncheon that takes place this Shabbat afternoon. The topical theme selected is "Trial by Jewry". The various witnesses will present the fatalistic Jewish point of view, the Vatican stand, and the prevailing World War II climate in America. These are all witnesses for the defense. The witness for the Prosecution will be an Israeli.

Mr. Joseph N. Friedman and Mr. Martin Markson have served as consulting attorneys in the preparation of summations by the Prosecution and the Defense. Mr. Lawrence A. Kobrin will give a short presentation on the purpose of presenting "The Deputy" to the American public of today. Final reservations for this exciting and controversial program are still being accepted by the Youth Office.

PREPARING FOR PASSOVER

The Negative Aspect

There are four negative commandments in the Torah concerning Passover. All of them deal with chametz. They require that no chametz be eaten during the holiday whether in a pure form or in a mixture. They also require that no chametz be retained in one's possession during the festival.

Chametz can be defined as food which contains grain which has become fermented. Wheat, rye, barley, oats and, generally speaking, all grains and grain products, as well as foods and liquids made from them, are subject to the laws of chametz. All baked articles, candies, soft drinks, wines, liquors, milk, canned foods, and dried fruits as well as other similarly processed foods, must have a reliable endorsement by a recognized rabbinic authority. The reputable matzoh firms are trustworthy in this respect, as are those products which carry the endorsement of the Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregations.

The Positive Aspect

There are three positive commandments in the Torah concerning Passover. The first requires the eating of matzoh on the first two nights of Passover. Throughout the rest of the festival the eating of matzoh is optional, although no chametz may be eaten. On the seder night, however, the eating of matzoh is obligatory.

The second commandment requires the telling of the story of the exodus from Egypt at the seder. This story is not a matter of words alone. It also includes certain active performances like the drinking of four cups of wine as a symbol of the joy of deliverance and the reclining on pillows as a sign of relief from the toil of slavery.

The final positive commandment requires us to remove chametz from the home on the eve of Passover. This commandment is fulfilled by the search for chametz, by the recital of the statement of nullification by which we renounce possession over any chametz which may unintentionally remain in our homes and, finally, by the burning of chametz on the morning of the day before Passover.

Search for Chametz

On Thursday night, March 26th, every Jewish home should be inspected to make sure that all chametz has been removed. Like every religious practice, there is a ceremony connected with this inspection. It is well to observe that ceremony, not alone because it is a religious requirement, but because it affords an opportunity to impress the children of the household. The benedictions to be recited are found in any standard Haggadah.

Disposal of Chametz

No chametz may be eaten on Friday, March 27th after 9:45 A.M. All chametz must be completely disposed of by 10:45 A.M.

Sale of Chametz

The ritual sale of chametz must be completed by early Friday morning, March 27th. There are those who prefer to perform this ritual in person. The Rabbis and the Ritual Director are available for that purpose. For those who cannot attend to this matter in person, there is a form provided in this Bulletin which authorizes Rabbi Lookstein to sell your chametz. This form should be returned to the synagogue by Thursday morning.

Service for First Born

Passover Eve is a traditional fast for first born. It is obligatory upon every first born who cannot observe the fast on Friday, March 27th, to attend the special service on that day and to participate at its conclusion in the light collation that is served. The service for the first born (Siyum Bechorim) will be held in the Chapel on Friday as part of the regular morning service. It will begin at 7:30.

The attendance at this service grows from year to year and we urge all first born to make a special effort to attend.

HALAKHIC DISCOURSE
THIS SATURDAY AFTERNOON

This Saturday afternoon, Shabbat ha-Gadol, Rabbi Haskel Lookstein will deliver an Halakhic Discourse between Mincha and Ma'ariv. The discourse will deal with the conduct of the Seder on Passover Night. Men and women are invited to Mincha Services at 5:50 and to remain for the Discourse, which will be followed by Ma'ariv.

KOSHER HOTELS FOR PASSOVER

The law prevents one from singling out explicitly hotels which are advertised as "kosher for Passover", but which actually may not be relied upon. One particular instance has come to our attention recently in connection with a hotel located in the Catskills.

Members who plan to spend the holiday at a hotel can obtain further information from the Rabbis.

MORE THAN $3,000 CONTRIBUTED TO PASSOVER RELIEF TO DATE

As we go to press, $3,100 has been received for this year's Passover Relief Appeal. Two hundred and fifty two members and friends of the congregation have responded most generously to this traditional request for aid. In accordance with the practice of Jewish Law, every individual who need not receive Maos Chitim, is obligated to give to the annual collection funds prior to Passover. No one may remain neutral in the face of the urgent need of the hour.

We are pleased to list the names of those who have responded to the appeal to date. At the same time, we urge all who have not as yet attended to this important matter, to do so immediately so that we may take care of the needy in advance of the festival. Readers who send their contributions by Monday will be listed in the next issue of the Bulletin.

RAMAZ WINS PLAY-OFF IN MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

Last Tuesday evening, March 10th, history was made in more places than at the Men's Club Dinner. That was the night that Ramaz met the Hebrew Institute of Long Island in the finals of the Inter Yeshiva League Play-Offs.

In the "main feature" of a Madison Square Garden Doubleheader (the New York Knickerbockers played in the second game) the "Rams" trounced Hebrew Institute of Long Island by the score of 64 to 43. After leaving the floor at half time on the short end of a 25-23 score, the Ramaz team outscored its opponents 41 to 18 in the second half to complete a clean sweep of the League honors.

Congratulations to Mr. Marvin Hershkowitz, Director of Physical Education for boys at the school, to the entire basketball team, to the talented cheerleaders and to the whole student body for a thrilling "first" in the history of Ramaz School.

addition, a silver anniversary souvenir booklet, giving a brief history of the Men's Club activities during the last twenty-five years, was distributed to each guest. The booklet was prepared by Rabbi Haskel Lookstein. It contains a number of nostalgic photographs, and is available in the synagogue office for those who wish to have a copy.

At the dinner, greetings were delivered by Max J. Etra, President of the Congregation, who is himself, a charter member of the Men's Club. William Lebowitz, President of the Men's Club, expressed his appreciation to the officers of the Club and the members, for making possible such a grand evening. The President of the Sisterhood, Mrs. Reuben N. Popkin, congratulated the Men's Club and its guest of honor, Ira F. Weisman.

Presentations by Hyman I. Bucher.

The Chairman, Mr. Bucher, presented a gift of the Soncino Talmud to Martin Markson, the past President of the Men's Club. He then called upon Mr. Isaac E. Okun, as representative of Ramaz School, and Mr. Nathan Salzman, as representative of the Park East Religious School to accept financial grants for the respective schools. These grants are given annually by the Men's Club for scholarship aid to deserving children.

Sam Levenson — Humorist and Teacher Par-Excellance

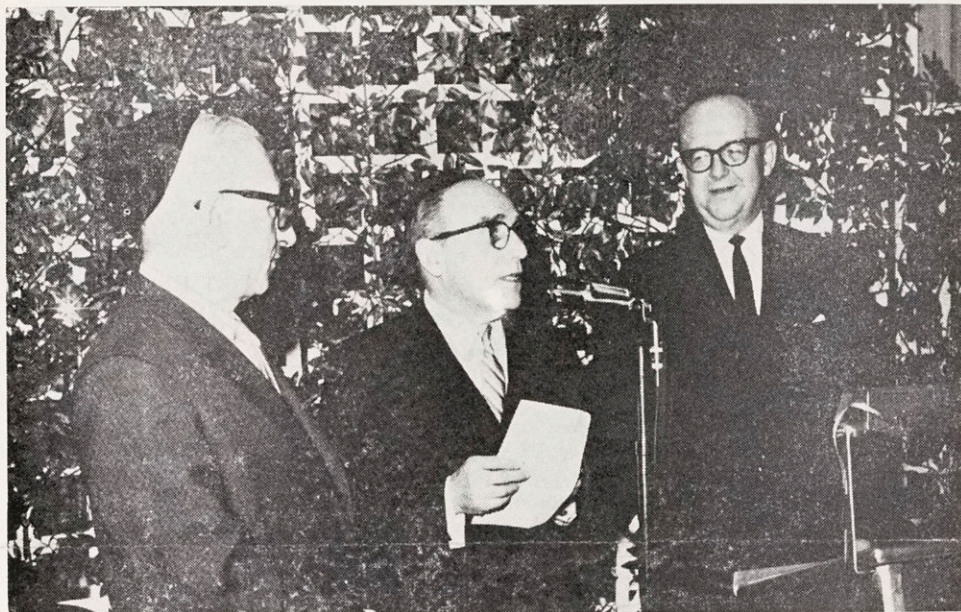

The entertainment of the evening was presented by the "dean of Jewish humorists", Sam Levenson. Sam outdid himself with his rich good-hearted philosophical anecdotes and stories of bygone days. Hearty laughter and agreeing nods followed each humorous tale.

Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein Makes Presentation

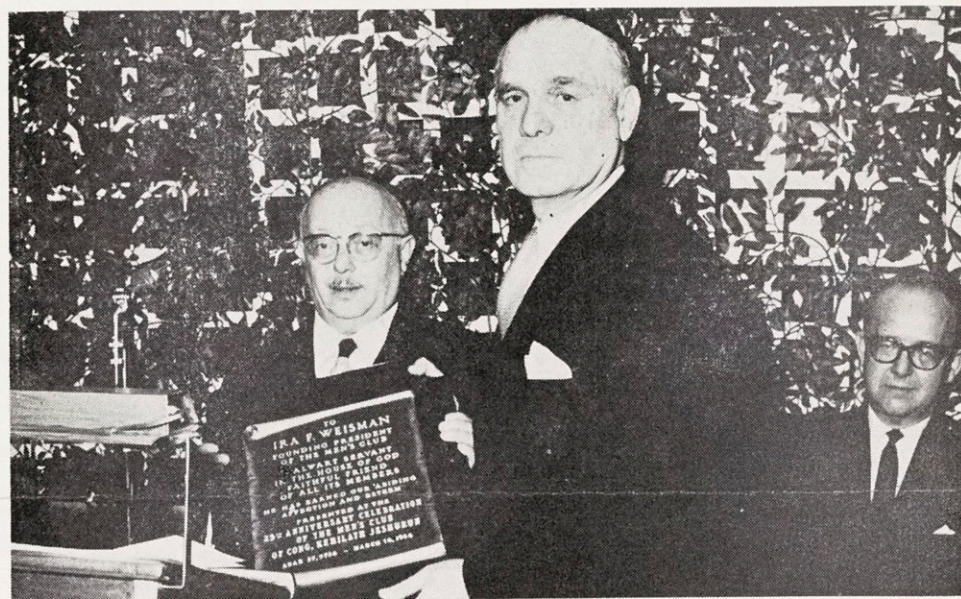

The climax of the evening was the address and presentation by Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein.

The Rabbi spoke of the accomplishments of Ira F. Weisman on behalf of the Men's Club, his service to the congregation and to Ramaz School. Mr. Weisman serves on the Board of Trustees of both institutions.

The Rabbi recalled the early days when Mr. Weisman was called upon to reorganize the Men's Club for the congregation. He accomplished that and served as President for the first fifteen years. It was he, together with a handful of others, who went on to form the National Association of Men's Clubs of Yeshiva University. He served as President of the National Association for five years.

The Rabbi then presented Mr. Weisman with a plaque as a symbol of the esteem in which he is held by the Men's Club and the congregational family.

Ira F. Weisman Response

In a few well chosen words, the guest of honor expressed his appreciation for the honor bestowed upon him. He cited examples of the work of the Men's Club in the past and said that he looked forward to the continued growth and success of the Group.

The dinner will go down in the annals of Men's Club and congregational history as an event ever to be remembered.
