HIGH HOLY DAYS IN REVIEW

The High Holy Day season which has just passed, was a memorable one in many respects. The services from Selichoth through Simchath Torah were beautifully conducted and inspiring for the many worshippers who filled the Main Synagogue time and again.

Cantor Cohen was at his best throughout the season. The Rabbis were both informative and inspiring in their sermons and interpolations. The busiest of all was, of course, Mr. Rosenberg who attended to the myriad of details which make the services at Kehilath Jeshurun what they are — from the instruction of the ushers to the training of young readers for Kohelleth.

Words of praise are in order for our Executive Director, Joseph Glatt, and for the synagogue office staff. Their consistent efforts all through the year and their "overtime" and "beyond time" work through this "busy season", make possible the exemplary character of our congregation.

We are grateful to the understanding members and worshippers of the congregation who took in stride the inconveniences caused by our building program. In a short time, these irregularities will be forgotten in our collective pride in the beautiful new structure and facilities which will be fully available to us all.

The success of any High Holy Day season must be measured ultimately in the impetus which it gives to all of us to live fuller and more meaningful Jewish lives. During the coming months Kehilath Jeshurun will offer many opportunities to its members and friends to realize this goal. We hope you will take advantage of these opportunities and we trust that they will provide the enrichment and the inspiration which we all seek.

The K. J. Men's Club

cordially invites all members and friends

THANK YOU USHERS

We express our sincere appreciation and thanks to the members of the Board of Ushers of the congregation for the services which they rendered during the High Holy Days.

The task of the ushers is an important one throughout the year. During the High Holy Days, however, when there are close to one thousand worshippers in the synagogue, the duty of the ushers becomes ever more important. Their efforts help make the services at Kehilath Jeshurun dignified and decorous.

We list below the names of those who served as ushers during the High Holy Days:

WITHIN OUR FAMILY

Birthdays —

Many happy returns of the day to Miss Gertrude Breiner, Herman Davidowitz, Mrs. Milton Eletz, Dr. Leon A. Feldman, David Joseph, Mrs. Alex Lichtman, Mrs. Jack Perlberger, Samuel Rosen, Charles Shulman, Mrs. Irving I. Schnur, Mrs. Meyer Texon, Mrs. Robert Wallach, and Mrs. Maurice Wegier.

Anniversaries—

Warmest greetings to Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Kommel and Dr. and Mrs. Meyer Texon.

Births—

We extend a hearty Mazel Tov to Dr. and Mrs. Charles I. Cohen upon the birth of a son. May they derive much joy and happiness from the new addition to their family.

Condolences—

We express our heartfelt condolences to our new member, Mrs. William Furst, upon the passing of her beloved brother, Max Messing.

We extend our heartfelt condolences to our esteemed member, Dr. Abram J. Abeloff, upon the passing of his beloved brother, Simon.

We pray that the families may be spared further sorrow for many years to come.

A HEARTY MAZEL TOV

Our heartiest congratulations to Mr. Noam Shudofsky, our Youth Director, and to Mrs. Shudofsky, an instructor in our Adult Institute, upon the birth of their third child, Leora, on the eve of the Sukkoth Festival. May this newest arrival in the family join her sister and brother, Rachel and Binyamin, as a source of pride and happiness to her parents.

ADULT INSTITUTE OFFERS NEW OPPORTUNITIES FOR '65 - 66 CLASSES TO BEGIN DURING WEEK OF OCTOBER 30th

The 1965-66 brochure of our Adult Institute will shortly reach you in the mail. In it are described the course offerings in our Institute for the Fall and Spring Semesters. We hope that all of the readers of the Bulletin will take advantage of the new and traditional offerings at our institute.

In the meantime, we would like to outline some of the courses and lectures planned for the Fall season.

REGULAR CLASSES

1. Sabbath Talmud Class

Rabbi Haskel Lookstein's Talmud Class has been rescheduled this year from its traditional Monday evening hour. It will meet instead on Sabbath afternoons, about an hour before Mincha, beginning on October 30th. The class will study the Seventh Chapter of the "Tractate, Berakhot", dealing with the laws and significances of the Grace After Meals. The class is open to men, women and children.

2. Advanced Hebrew

A course of long standing in our Adult Institute which has been conducted by Mrs. Alice Rothkowitz of the Park East Religious School for some seven years. The students are already fairly fluent in reading, writing, and speaking Hebrew. The aim of the course is to increase that fluency. New students are invited.

MONDAY MORNING CLASSES FOR WOMEN

1. Studies In Judaism

In place of the Women's Bible Class, Rabbi Haskel Lookstein will give a course in "Judaism — Religion and Ethics", a survey of religious practice, philosophy and ethics from the point of view of Judaism. The class will use a special text in conjunction with the weekly lectures.

Hours: Mondays, 11 to 12 Noon

2. Hebrew For Beginners

A course which has already served the needs of some seventy men and women in the past seven years will be offered again this year. Its purpose is to prepare the student, at its completion, to follow a synagogue service competently, and to learn to read, write and speak simple Hebrew. The instructor is Mrs. Alice Rothkowitz.

Hours: Mondays 10 to 11 A.M.

3. Second Year Hebrew

A continuation by Mrs. Noam Shudofsky of her highly successful elementary course from last year. New students with an elementary knowledge of Hebrew are invited.

Hours: Mondays 10 to 11 A.M.

FALL SEMESTER COURSES

(These three courses will meet for 7 Wednesday evenings from 8 to 9 P.M. November 3, 10, 17 and December 1, 8, 15, 22)

1. Maimonides' Code of Law

A course dealing with Judaism's concept of repentance and its attitude toward idolatry which form part of the first volume of Maimonides' work. Selected portions of that work will be translated and distributed to the students for home study. This course, now in its third year, touches upon fundamental Jewish ethics and values.

Instructor: Rabbi Haskel Lookstein

2. "Am I My Brother's Keeper?"

(A survey of Genesis)

This new offering will present a survey of the first Book of the Bible through the relationship between various sets of brothers described therein: Cain and Abel, the sons of Noah, Isaac and Ishmael, Jacob and Esau, and Joseph and his brothers. Through these relationships the instructor will demonstrate the essential themes and lessons of the Book.

Instructor: Rabbi Joshua Bakst (Instructor of Talmud and Bible, Ramaz Upper School)

3. Modern Hebrew Literature

An opportunity will be given in this course to students who wish to study Hebrew literature on a college level to do so under the guidance of an experienced Israeli educator, who is on a one year mission in this country. Selections from modern Hebrew literature will be available to the students in paperback and will be treated from the point of view of literary analysis.

Instructor: Mr. Gad Cohen

LECTURE SERIES

This year's series of lectures will be divided into two parts. They will be given on the seven Wednesday evenings when the Fall Semester courses are given. The time will be 9 to 10 P.M.

The first part of the series will consist of four lectures by Dr. Irving Agus on various aspects of Modern Jewish History. We offer these lectures in tribute to an old friend of our Adult Institute upon the completion of his new two volume work, "Urban Civilization in Pre-Crusade Europe."

Wednesday, November 3

"The Heroic Age of Franco-German Jewry"

Wednesday, November 10

"Jewish Culture at its Heights"

Wednesday, November 17

"Urban Civilization in the Making"

Wednesday, December 1

"Marriage and the Status of Women"

The second part of our series, "The State of Israel at Eighteen — Problems and Prospects", will consist of a series of three lectures in honor of the forthcoming Eighteenth Anniversary of Israel Independence. Each will deal with a particular phase of Israeli life. The lecturers will be three outstanding experts in the various phases.

Wednesday, December 8

"Israel Among the Nations — A Political Survey"

Lecturer: Hon. Michael Arnon

Wednesday, December 15

"Bridging the Educational Gap"

Lecturer: Dr. Shlomo Haramati

Wednesday, December 22

"The Lachish Project in Israel — An Experiment in Social Integration"

Lecturer: Dr. Aryeh Neshor

Please consult the Adult Institute Brochure, when it arrives, for full details on the above programs as well as on the many other features for the Fall and the Spring. We hope that the offerings of our Institute will meet your educational needs. You are cordially invited to enroll as so many members and friends of the congregation do — on a full scholarship.

SISTERHOOD
NEEDIEST CASES FUND

We acknowledge with thanks contributions to our Sisterhood Neediest Cases Fund from Mrs. Bertha Kelin, Mrs. Abraham R. Kirshon and Mrs. Morris Morgenstern.

Contributions should be sent to Mrs. Joseph Roth, 891 Park Avenue, Chairman of the Neediest Cases Fund.

MAIL FOR COLLEGE STUDENTS

The congregation is most anxious to remain in touch with all the college students from our community, who are attending school away from home. These students change their addresses each year. We would like to send them the weekly Bulletin, as well as other pertinent items of information which will help to keep them in contact with their spiritual home base.

Would you be good enough to list, on the form provided in this Bulletin, the names of college students away from home, who should be receiving such mail. We cannot over stress the importance of complying with this request. This is a service which we know the young people will greatly appreciate.
