YOUTH SABBATH AND RAMAZ CONCLAVE NOVEMBER 13

We wish to announce to our readers that Saturday, November 13th, will be observed as Youth Sabbath in our congregation. The entire service on Saturday morning will be turned over to the young people of our congregational family who will officiate as cantors and Torah readers. The event promises to be a magnificent one. Please reserve the date and plan to be with us at services on Sabbath morning, November 13th.

Once again, in conjunction with our annual Youth Sabbath, the Ramaz General Organization — the student organization of Ramaz High School, is co-sponsoring a weekend conclave with Shachar — the Youth group of our Congregation. We expect more than 100 teenage boys and girls to be present with us from Friday afternoon, November 12th through Saturday night, November 13th. Those who are not within walking distance of the synagogue will be housed in the homes of members of our teenage group.

A full weekend's program with meals included is being planned by and for the young people. We are looking forward for the program to echo the outstanding success of last year.

Young people who would like to be part of this experience are urged to contact our Youth Director, Noam Shudofsky at SA 2-2272.

The first of 4 lectures by Dr. Irving Agus on Medieval Jewish History

Lecture I

"The Heroic Age of Franco-German Jewry"

Dr. Irving Agus, Professor of Jewish History at Yeshiva University, has recently published a two volume work on the medieval period, entitled: "Urban Civilization in the Making"

RABBI HASKEL LOOKSTEIN WILL PREACH THIS SATURDAY AT 11:00 A.M.
"SURVIVING A GENERATION AND MAKING A GENERATION SURVIVE — A NEGATIVE LESSON FROM NOAH"

"NOAH"

The Self-Righteousness of Noah

Noah has been criticized by the Talmud for the fact that although he was righteous himself, he did not, like Abraham, succeed in making his generation righteous. There is no doubt that this is what stood between Noah and true greatness; but we should not, on the other hand, underrate the significance of what Noah did accomplish.

Noah was "perfect in his generation." He was able in the midst of a society of rogues and cheats, to conduct his affairs with impeccable honesty. In an idolatrous culture "Noah walked with God." In an adulterous environment Noah was faithful to his wife and children.

While this in itself does not make a man great, we cannot expect much more from any human being. Judaism is not a missionary religion. We are not by nature ecumenically oriented, but rather internally directed. All that Judaism really requires of a man is that he succeed with himself.

If we can control our own passion; if we can train ourselves to be honest and honorable, gentle and charitable, god-fearing and man-loving, then we have achieved religious and ethical fulfillment in the eyes of Judaism. To be considered great would require the capacity to change the world; but if every human being could change himself, as did Noah, there would be no need for greatness.

YOUNG MARRIEDS TO HEAR VEL PASTERNAK

The first Young Marrieds meeting of the year will be held in the home of Rabbi and Mrs. Haskel Lookstein, on Saturday evening, November 13th, at 8:30 o'clock. Invitations have already been mailed to all members.

The highlight of the meeting will be an illustrated demonstration lecture of Hassidic Music by Vel Pasternak. Mr. Pasternak, a graduate of Yeshiva University, is an accomplished authority in the field of Hassidic music. He has arranged and conducted many of the most popular records of Hassidic music now on the market.

We are most anxious to invite to this meeting couples in their twenties and thirties, who reside in our community. If a couple was overlooked by us, we would appreciate a reminder from our readers and we will be more than happy to correct the oversight.

In the meantime, the regular members of the Young Marrieds groups are requested to return their response cards and to indicate whether or not they will be at the first meeting.

HELP US TO SERVE OUR YOUNG

During the past two years the Youth Department has grown several fold. Our various youth groups are functioning at full capacity.

We are, nevertheless, convinced that there are many young people whom we are not reaching at present because we do not know of their existence. We would like to enlist your help in reaching every young person whom we can possibly serve.

Would you please use the form on page 4 to inform us of such youngsters. They may be members of your family or merely acquaintances. They should be between the ages of four and eighteen. If they do not receive mail from our Youth Activities Department, we are anxious to get in touch with them.

Thank you for your anticipated cooperation in this important matter.

AM HASEFER PROGRAM

A Jewish Book of the Month Club

This will be the seventh year in which the Kehilath Jeshurun Adult Institute will present its Am HaSefer Program. The program is designed to encourage a group of people to read four books of Jewish interest during the course of the year and to meet about once every six weeks to discuss the book which they have read during the preceding weeks. This year we are making one important innovation. Each book will have a different discussion leader.

Our program is as follows:

1. THE SOURCE — James A. Michener

The best selling novel recreating Jewish History through the vehicle of archaeological excavations in the Land of Israel.

Discussion leader:

Rabbi Haskel Lookstein

2. THE MAGICIAN OF LUBLIN —

Isaac Bashevis Singer

The spellbound masterpiece of one man's struggle with evil and sensuality, by an author who treats his subject in "concrete, human, even humorous terms."

Discussion leader: Mrs. Mordie Mann

3. LIFE IS WITH PEOPLE — Zborowski and Herzog

Two sociologists describe the "culture" of the Shtetl, the small town Jewish community of Eastern Europe. Through the eyes of the social scientist the reader sees anew the power of the Jewish religion as it affects the daily existence of the Jew — in the past as well as today.

Discussion leaders:

Mr. & Mrs. Israel Friedman

4. THE MODERN JEW FACES ETERNAL PROBLEMS — Aron Barth

A series of discussions on the principles of Judaism and their application in modern life, this book by a man of practical affairs has been a "best seller" in Israel for many years and is now available in an excellent translation.

Discussion leader: Lawrence A. Kobrin

Those who are interested in enrolling in this program, are asked either to return the registration card enclosed with their Adult Institute Brochure or to communicate by mail or phone with the synagogue office, indicating which evenings — if any would constitute inconvenient times for meetings.
