

RABBI HASKEL LOOKSTEIN TO REVIEW "THE SOURCE" AT SISTERHOOD MEETING

The K. J. Sisterhood will hold its next regular luncheon meeting on Monday, January 24th, at 12:30 o'clock in the social hall. The guest speaker for this meeting will be Rabbi Haskel Lookstein.

Our Associate Rabbi will give a review of James Michener's best selling novel, "The Source." Many of the ladies have read the book; others will want to do so before the meeting. In any event, the opportunity to hear an analysis of this timely and topical work is one which all will want to enjoy.

A cordial invitation is extended to all ladies — members and non-members — to attend the meeting on Monday, January 24th, at 12:30 o'clock.

MEN'S CLUB 27th ANNUAL DINNER TO BE HELD TUESDAY, JANUARY 25th

The 27th Annual Dinner of the Kehilath Jeshurun Men's Club will be held on Tuesday evening, January 25th, in the Social Hall of the synagogue. Abraham R. Kirshon, President, announced that the date was being advanced from March, in order to allow for the rescheduling of the Theatre Party. (see details on this page)

The Chairman of the 27th Annual Dinner will be William Lebowitz, who preceded Mr. Kirshon as Club President. His Co-Chairman is Milton Eletz, Treasurer of the Men's Club.

The program of the dinner, the warmth and sociability which have prevailed in the past, the traditional menu for the dinner and reception, and the nominal cost of $10 per plate will all remain as heretofore.

We are confident that all members of the Club and men friends of the congregation will enjoy the evening. Invitations are now in the mail. Please respond without delay — and affirmatively.

MEN'S CLUB THEATRE PARTY DATE CHANGED TO MONDAY, MARCH 7th
"Sweet Charity" Draws Rave Reviews at Philadelphia Opening

The new date for the Men's Club Theatre Party is Monday evening, March 7th at the rebuilt and refurbished Palace Theatre. Our show, "Sweet Charity", starring Gwen Verdon and written by Neil Simon, opened on December 6th in Philadelphia to the unanimous raves of the reviewers of that city. Here are some of their notices:

Philadelphia Evening Bulletin —
"Sweet Charity Arrives — Bless It."

"At last, somebody — a whole bunch of somebodies — have put together a honey of a musical . . . with that honey of a redhead, Gwen Ver-don . . . 'Sweet Charity' is a dizzy, dancing valentine and never mind that it isn't the right time of the year. It's always the right time for a bright cheerful show."

Philadelphia Inquirer

" . . . The musical show we have all been waiting for, the one with the songs and the dances and the funny sayings, the one with the lovely people and the unfaltering sense of humor opened Monday night at the Shubert.

It is 'Sweet Charity' and it makes a beautiful trio with the faith and hope that theatre lovers have been pressing for these many months."

Philadelphia Daily News — "3 in 1 hit at Shubert."

'Sweet Charity' brought Gwen Verdon to the Shubert last night in a musical that had songs that were hummable, dancing that rated ovations and jokes that could be laughed at steadily. The presence of all these essentials in the same tuneshow, plus the delightfully Chaplinesque miming and antic dancing of Miss Verdon, added up to the most enlivening first night of the season."

Tickets will be at a premium for this show for a long time to come. Do yourselves a favor and help the Men's Club's philanthropic program — this is the Club's only fund-raising event of the year. Order your tickets early.

Rabbi Haskel Lookstein will preach this Saturday at 11 A.M.

"JEWISH VIEWS OF THE BEYOND AND THEIR IMPLICATIONS FOR THE HERE AND NOW"

THE WEEKLY PORTION*Vayechi*"Jacob's Call for Peace"

According to our sages, Jacob called his sons together before his death and warned them as follows: "Come together, because a household in which there is strife ultimately meets with destruction."

In our day, the house is no longer merely a home, a city, or a nation, but a world. "A house divided against itself cannot stand" applies not only to civil war at home but even to a war fought in the far off reaches of Southeast Asia.

The descendants of Jacob ought to be gratified, therefore, when the President of the United States sends emissaries of peace — including among them the illustrious peace maker, Arthur Goldberg — to impress upon the world that we are prepared to negotiate all differences at any time, in any place, with anyone and under any conditions.

Unity and peace among men and among nations is predicated upon a respect for all human beings. Respect requires us to listen to those with whom we disagree even as we listen to our ideological friends. Respect, as a human quality, transcends even love. We need not love every individual at all times. Peace and unity, however, require constant respect for all people.

The roots of such respect are in the God-man relationship. We respect man because he is a creature of God. Thus, when we speak of "kavod ha-briyot" we are literally respecting "created beings." It is sometimes difficult to think of an enemy, a tyrant, a war monger etc. as a created being of God, but if the house of mankind is to stand, it must rest upon the unity of mankind which means respect for every human being.

Respect does not mean surrender. It means a willingness to try to understand differences and reach amicable understandings. Such an understanding may be unattainable in our day, but the effort to achieve it ought to be expended, encouraged, and appreciated.

"When the righteous are about to pass from this world," say our sages in reference to Jacob, "they do not will their descendants property or possessions; they rather instruct them in reverence for God." Reverence for God is the foundation for respect toward man. Let us guard that respect; let us hope that our adversaries will prove deserving of that respect; and let us hope that mutual respect will bring unity and peace to our world.

BAR MITZVAH

We extend a hearty Mazel Tov to our devoted members, Dr. and Mrs. H. Harold Gelfand upon the Bar Mitzvah of their son Richard.

The Bar Mitzvah celebrant who is a graduate of the Park East Religious School is in the seventh grade of the Manhattan Hebrew High School. He is in the seventh grade of the Horace Mann School.

He will read part of the weekly portion and the prophetic chapter, as part of the regular services.

The congregation will be the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Gelfand at the kiddush following the services.

STUDY GROUPS IN COMPARATIVE LAW AND THE KUZARI TO BEGIN JANUARY 24 AND 31

The special spring offerings of our Adult Institute will be in the form of two study groups which will meet for five sessions each, on alternate Monday evenings during late January, February and March.

Comparative Law

This group will study methods of jurisprudence in the Talmud as they relate to general principles in modern constitutional law and common law. The members of the group will receive materials which they will be able to review in preparation for each session.

The discussion leader will be our own member, Lawrence A. Kobrin, a graduate of Ramaz, Columbia College, Columbia Law School, a former Notes Editor of the Columbia Law Review and a past Managing Editor of Tradition.

The meetings will take place at 8:30 P.M. in the synagogue library according to the following schedule:

Monday, January 24th
Monday, February 7th
Monday, February 21st
Wednesday, March 9th
Monday, March 21st

The Kuzari

This group will study selected subjects from Yehuda haLevi's Classic presentation of Jewish philosophy. The book is a beautiful synthesis of the rational and the experiential sources of Jewish faith and practice.

The discussion leader will be Rabbi Nathan Bulman, a renowned scholar, teacher, and communal leader whose rabbinic ordination was received from Yeshiva University. His analysis of haLevi's themes will be not only informative but inspiring as well.

Meetings will take place at 8:30 in the synagogue library according to the following schedule:

Monday, January 31st
Monday, February 14th
Monday, February 28th
Monday, March 14th
Monday, March 28th

Registration Now Open

While both groups have a fine registration already, those who have not registered previously are invited to do so now. Please, however, do not delay. We wish to maintain the study group character and, hence, there are only a few places available in each group.

OVER FIFTY NEW MEMORIAL PLAQUES

Mr. Israel D. Rosenberg, our Ritual Director, informs us that fifty-five new plaques have been ordered to be inscribed on the Memorial Tablets of our synagogue. These plaques are the finest tribute to a loved one.

The charge for a Memorial Plaque is $200. On February 1st, according to a decision of the Board of Trustees, the charge will be increased to $250.

The last remaining tablet on which Memorial Plaques may be inscribed is slowly filling up. It is, therefore, advisable that those who would like to pay tribute to a deceased loved one, order the plaques without delay. A word to our Ritual Director will receive prompt attention.

WOMEN'S DIVISION OF FEDERATION
PLANS MEMBERSHIP LUNCHEON

Members of Federation are invited as guests of the Women's Division of the Federation of Jewish Philanthropies to attend their Membership Luncheon, at twelve noon, Thursday, January 20th, which will be in tribute to Mrs. Herbert H. Lehman. An outstanding program is being planned for this event.

Just as Federation is the New York Jewish community's unified expression of our age-old tradition of Tzedakah, membership is a means of fulfilling one's individual communal responsibility to care for the sick, the needy, the homeless, the aged, and the handicapped among our neighbors.

The yearly contribution or pledge of $50 or over confers membership in Federation, and admits the donor to the non-fund raising Luncheon and Tribute at the Hotel Astor, Grand Ballroom.

Please contact the Sisterhood's Federation Chairman, Mrs. Oscar Perlberger, SA 2-8454 or call PLaza 1-1000, Ext. 347 to be sure that a reservation will be made for you.
