ABRAHAM R. KIRSHON AND FELLOW OFFICERS RE-ELECTED BY MEN'S CLUB AT CLOSING MEETING

The closing meeting of the season for the Kehilath Jeshurun Men's Club was held on Sunday morning, June 5. The meeting was preceded by a regular morning service and a community breakfast. A fine group of men turned out for this combined religious, social and organizational conclusion to a highly successful season.

Following the presidential report on the activities for the year, Ira F. Weisman, Chairman of the Nominations Committee, presented the names of the current officers for an additional year of service. The following were elected by acclamation: Abraham R. Kirshon, President; Abe Newborn, Vice President; Nico deGraaff, Treasurer; Milton Eletz, Secretary.

These officers led the Club during a year of exceptionally fine activity. The year was also characterized by success in the area of fund-raising. The Ramaz School scholarship fund, the Park East Religious School scholarship fund and our assistance to youngsters attending Yeshiva University's Torah Leadership Seminars were the beneficiaries of substantial grants from the Club.

Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein concluded the meeting with an inspirational message concerning the future of the Men's Club and the ever-increasing role which younger people are and should be playing in its development.

PARK EAST RELIGIOUS SCHOOL CLOSING ASSEMBLY

The Closing Assembly of the Park East Religious School took place last Sunday morning, at 10:30 o'clock in the Social Hall of Congregation Kehilath Jeshurun.

The highlights of the assembly were the greetings delivered by Eric Wachtel, a fifth grade student, who spoke in Hebrew. Wayne Kadis, a pupil in the fifth grade, greeted the parents in English.

The principal of the school, Rabbi Jack Guttenberg, spoke to the parents on the importance of religious education. He outlined the services rendered by the Park East Religious School to our community.

The students of grade three presented a beautiful choral reading on the Ten Commandments. This presentation was under the direction of Mrs. Alice Rothkowitz, a veteran teacher of the school.

An entertaining session of song by the students of the Park East Religious School was directed by the music instructor, Mr. Stanley Sperber.

Honor certificates were distributed to a number of students, who received a round of applause from those present.

We remind parents and worshippers of the need for making available a religious education for their children. The month of June is Registration Month at the Park East Religious School. Please make certain to register your child and to urge your friends to follow your example. A form for this purpose appears on page 4.

Subscription To New Edition Of Talmud Available

English Translation and Commentaries Included

We are pleased to announce that a new edition of the Talmud is available through our congregation. The nature of this edition makes it one of the most exciting prospects in Jewish education in many many years.

The details are as follows: The EL-AM Company in Israel is producing a new edition of the Talmud in pamphlet form, beginning with the first Tractate, Berachot. The edition includes the original Aramaic text, vowelized and punctuated; an excellent English translation; and commentaries which explain the text according to classical and modern interpretations.

The publication method is as follows: Each month a pamphlet is published which incorporates about two or three pages of the Talmud with all of the features described above. During the course of a year, ten such pamphlets are made available. The cost to the general public is $15.00 a year. Through the congregation, subscriptions may be entered at $12.00 per year.

We strongly recommend that every household subscribe to this excellent publication. It is possible to study the Talmud from this publication without any outside help.

The Talmud program of the Adult Education Institute of our congregation will be geared to the study of the material presented in this first year of publication. We will try to arrange group study sessions to fit the needs of various segments in the congregation.

We suggest that this is an opportunity not to be missed. It makes available the most important volume of Jewish study in a form comprehensible and meaningful to all. Please use the form below to subscribe now.
