THE WEEKLY PORTION

Remember . . . Don't Forget . . .!

As a special addendum to our Weekly Portion this Sabbath, we will read Parshat Zachor, that passage in the Fifth Book of the Bible which requires us to remember the infamy practiced at our expense by Amalek, the tribe from whom the arch tyrant, Haman, was descended.

As if to emphasize the gravity of the injunction, the Torah compounds the mitzvah by enjoining us both to remember and not to forget. Thus, if we forget what Amalek did and, more importantly, what Amalek means, we are violating both a positive and a negative commandment of the Torah.

Throughout most of our long history it did not require much concentration to remember the anti-Semitism which Amalek and Haman symbolized. The plague of anti-Semitism was widespread and omnipresent. In recent years, however, particularly in our blessed land of America, the specter of anti-Semitism has hardly reared its head and, to all intents and purposes, it seems to have disappeared altogether. A young generation is growing up in this land which, to paraphrase the Bible, remembers not Pharaoh (although it is growing increasingly aware of Joseph and his heritage).

That such complacency is not altogether warranted has become manifest in the past few weeks. First, we saw the bold stance of the anti-Semite revealed in the Board of Education elections in Wayne County, New Jersey. The largely assimilated Jewish population of Wayne County was rudely awakened by the strident voices of a community in strife, roused by deep-seated hatred for and fear of the Jewish segment of the population.

Second, only last week we saw the first of what, no doubt, will be a series of advertisements which struck at the core of Jewish religious practice under the guise of benevolent friendship toward animals. After a recent sermon of mine on the subject of humane slaughter legislation, I received a lengthy letter from the prime mover in the organization which sponsored that advertisement rudely objecting to my alleged description of that organization as anti-Semitic. In retrospect, I can only regret that I made only an oblique allegation and not a clear and forthright charge.

Finally, just last week the newspapers carried a lengthy goodwill statement by a major church in America apologizing for past crimes,

PASSOVER RELIEF APPEAL LAUNCHED

In our Congregation the Passover Relief Appeal has always elicited a warm and generous response. This year, a minimum of $7,000 will be required to take care of those causes and individuals who turn to us for assistance. Out of this fund, too, we will be able to take care of special deserving families whose need we know and who would not normally come to the attention of public charity.

A special letter about this Appeal has already been sent to you. It is an Appeal to our entire Kehilath Jeshurun family — members, seat holders and friends alike — to respond generously to our campaign this year. We approach all because we try to benefit all.

Together with the letter you will find a Passover Food Directory, showing all those products under the supervision of the Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregations of America. This booklet, is sent to you to assist you in ordering your Passover food needs.

You can assist others in preparing for their Passover, by sending your contribution to the Passover Relief Fund, without delay. In that way, you will accomplish the most good.

As in the past, we will publish a list of donors in the Bulletin about two weeks before Passover.

When you sit down at the Seder table this year, the opening statement of the Haggadah will have added meaning for you when you realize that your contribution helped others who might not ordinarily come to your attention.

regretting historical inhumanities toward the Jewish people and offering to make amends by initiating a series of dialogues in depth in which two religions could study together, pray together and explore their common ideological backgrounds. The apology and the regret are commendable if somewhat belated; the offer for dialogues — even with overt proselytization excluded — carries with it certain perils of which we ought to be aware.

In short, the commandment to remember Amalek and not to forget the dangers of anti-Semitism is quite relevant for our day. Shabbat Zachor, the Sabbath of Remembrance, in 1967 has special contemporary meaning for every Jew. Let us hope that in 1968 the commandment to remember overt and covert anti-Semitism will have only remote historical significance.

YESHIVA UNIVERSITY BRUNCH AT KEHILATH JESHURUN
SUNDAY, APRIL 2nd

On Sunday morning, April 2nd, at 10:00 o'clock, Kehilath Jeshurun will hold its annual brunch in behalf of Yeshiva University.

Our congregation over the years has shared in the growth of Yeshiva University as an eminent center of higher learning.

Kehilath Jeshurun's role of leadership is evident in the University's annuals, publications, and emplaquements on buildings, classrooms, and facilities. Members of Kehilath Jeshurun and their loved ones are honored as Scholarship Donors, as Master Builders and as Science Fellows, in tribute to their generosity toward America's oldest and largest center of higher learning under Jewish auspices.

Today, Yeshiva University is in the period of its greatest growth. Student enrollment steadily increases; faculty is being enlarged; courses of study are expanding; new buildings for the arts and sciences are under construction. Again, it is incumbent upon us to respond — to share with gratification and pride in a glorious achievement of the American Jewish community.

Make a special effort to spend Sunday morning, April 2nd, with other members of Kehilath Jeshurun and hear the full story on the accomplishments and future role of Yeshiva University.

RABBI HASKEL LOOKSTEIN TO DELIVER CLOSING LECTURE OF ADULT INSTITUTE SEASON WEDNESDAY NIGHT, APRIL 5

The formal season of classes for the Kehilath Jeshurun Adult Institute will officially come to a close on Wednesday night, April 5th. The closing ceremonies will be marked by a special open public lecture to be delivered by Rabbi Haskel Lookstein.

This lecture will conclude a four-part series on the general theme: "Traditional Judaism Confronts Contemporary Issues." The title of our Associate Rabbi's address will be: "Issues of Religion and State in Israel."

It is well-known that in Israel, state and religion are not separated as they are, theoretically, in America. It is also known that the close association between the Jewish religion and the Jewish state has led to many sticky political and social problems.

The Rabbi will discuss the status quo as it exists today in Israel. He will try to outline some of the problems and deal constructively with some of the issues. He will also relate the non-separation of religion and state in Israel to the changing pattern of church and state in America today.

A cordial invitation is extended to the entire congregational family to attend this closing lecture of the season on Wednesday, April 5th, at 9:00 o'clock. The lecture will be followed by a question and answer period. A light collation will be served at the conclusion of the program.

CONGREGATIONAL SEDARIM TO BE HELD

We are pleased to announce that, as in the past, a congregational Seder will be held on each night of the Passover holiday. The dates this year are Monday evening, April 24th, and Tuesday evening, April 25th.

Those who attended Seder nights with us in the past are all in agreement that they compare favorably with even a home Seder. They are really and truly family occasions.

The congregational Seder is a service to our members and to their immediate families. We will be glad to accommodate them for both nights of the festival or for one of the nights. To preserve the character of the Seder we limit the number of reservations. We, therefore, urge those who want to be with us to make their reservations without delay. Reservation forms will shortly be mailed to the entire congregation.

KIDDUSH SPONSOR

The kiddush this Sabbath will be sponsored by Mr. Henry Reinhold in honor of the aufruf of his son, John.

PLEASE NOTE

The Father and Son Minyan will not be held this Sunday morning, March 26th and Sunday morning, April 2nd.

The program will resume on Sunday morning, April 9th. A cordial invitation is extended to all men and boys to join us at that service, which will be the last session of the season.
