This is the award presented by the Boy Scouts of America to first-class scouts who demonstrate a certain level of knowledge in and commitment to Judaism.

The award recipients from our troop are:

Our congratulations to these for a job well done. Thanks also to Michael M. Barany, the chairman of the parent's committee and his co-workers, Dr. Mortimer Blumenthal and Benjamin Deutsch. We are also grateful to Noam Shudofsky, our youth director, who supervises all the needs of the Boy Scout Troop, and to David Gitler, our very capable scout master from Yeshiva University.

We look forward to future salient achievements in the year to come.
