TWENTY-THIRD ANNIVERSARY OF ISRAEL'S INDEPENDENCE

On Thursday, April 29th, the 23rd anniversary of the greatest event in Jewish history for the past 1900 years will be commemorated. We are referring, of course, to Yom Ha'atzmaut, the annual celebration of Israel's achieving independence on the fifth day of Iyar 5708 (1948).

All over the world Jews will gather in synagogues to celebrate the renewal of Israel's independence in our day following a long and bitter exile which was climaxed by the Holocaust in Europe. Truly, our generation is more blessed than any other. We have been witness to this dramatic event and we have been sustained by its after effects.

At Kehilath Jeshurun, we will mark this day with a special morning service at 7:30 featured by appropriate prayers, the recitation of Hallel and special ceremonies. We will complete the celebration with a gala breakfast sponsored by the Vice President of the congregation, Nathan Salzman.

We extend a cordial invitation to the entire Kehilath Jeshurun family, men and women of all ages, to attend this service and to be with us for breakfast. Let us celebrate this greatest occasion in appropriate religious fashion.

A Suggestion for the Home

Israel's independence should be a theme in every Jewish home. Sunset on Thursday, April 29th, will not be until about 7:45. There is ample time, therefore, to have a festive family dinner on Thursday evening in celebration of Yom Ha'atzmaut. Have your children or grandchildren decorate your home. Use your holiday finery and drink l'chayim to the great events of recent history and hopefully to the continued security and welfare of the State of Israel and the people of Israel.

RAMAZ EIGHTH GRADER IN NATIONAL BIBLE QUIZ

We are proud to announce that Joseph Klausner, a student in Form II in the Ramaz Upper School, (corresponding to grade eight) is one of two students from Manhattan who was chosen to compete in the National Run Offs for the Bible Contest sponsored in the United States by the Jewish Agency.

Joseph earned this place by scoring very high in the Regional Contest which was held recently. Joining him in that Regional Contest were the following students from Ramaz.

Rafi Abrams, Kenneth Barany, Danny Beller, Stephen Berger, Steven Berkowitz, Rachel Blumenthal, Mitchell Coven, Alec Friedman, Allan Friedman, Ethan Heisler, Judy Hollander, Steven Kessler, Evan Kotel, Jeffrey Lloyd, Barry Meislin, Richard Moche, Chaim Mond, Michael Nash, Nina Neumann, Robert Riederman, Linda Rosenthal, Robert Shafer, Binyamin Shudofsky, Miriam Sobel, Syma Steinmetz, and Ethel Weisselberger.

We congratulate all of the contestants on their work and we wish Joseph, in particular, success in the national phase of this contest. The winner receives a free trip to Israel.

BOY SCOUTS AND WEBELOS IN EXCITING BASKETBALL GAME

On Wednesday evening, March 24th the Webelos and the Boy Scouts played a challenge basketball game. There were well over one hundred spectators present consisting of parents, grandparents, and friends of the players, all of whom cheered the teams on with wild enthusiasm that can be matched only by a championship game played at Madison Square Garden. Each team had their own uniformed cheer leaders and the roars of approval after each basket could be heard throughout the building.

The game, which was very close for the first half, was won by the older scouts by a score of 38 to 15. More important than the score itself was the outstanding sportsmanship displayed by both teams. It was truly a credit to the congregation and to the Scouting program.

Many thanks to the teams' managers, Mr. Walter Koppel of the Webelos and Mr. Martin Haber of the Boy Scouts, Charlie Sub and David Sable who were the coaches, score keepers Binyomin Shudofsky and Steven Berkowitz and referees Zvi Gold, Marvin Binstock and Craig Barany.

FOUR HUNDRED CONTRIBUTE $7,000 to PASSOVER RELIEF APPEAL

The Passover Relief Appeal of this year received warm and generous response from the membership of Kehilath Jeshurun. More than 400 donors contributed a sum close to $7,000. We have reason to feel proud of this result.

Because of this generosity we were able to help many deserving causes, institutions and individuals. Our Russian brethren were the chief beneficiaries of our appeal. Twenty-Five Hundred Dollars was donated to the Ezra Fund of the Rabbinical Council of America for food packages to our brothers in the Soviet lands. The Joint Passover Relief Committee, which takes care of the poor of our city, received $1,500. The Ezras Torah Fund, one of the most deserving agencies that helps needy and deserving rabbis and scholars, received $500.

Institutions of learning, here and in Israel, received over $1,000 and individual rabbis who do not come to the attention of public charities were helped by us.

Before long, the full record of our pre-Passover benevolences, as well as those throughout the year, will be published. In the meantime, we wish to express our heartiest thanks to the entire Kehilath Jeshurun family for their warm response. May God continue to enable us to perform kind acts for all that is worthy.

Below is a list of contributors whose donations arrived after March 25th.

REVEALING NEWS ITEM ON ISRAEL

In a recent issue of the Jewish Telegraphic Agency News Bulletin, a high State Department official was described as having advised a group of businessmen that if the Soviet Union should join in an Egyptian attempt to capture the Sinai Peninsula, the United States would consider that the balance of power in the Middle East will have been disrupted. The official, who declined to be publicly identified, did not indicate what the U.S. would do in such a situation.

The official stressed that the United States has at least a moral commitment to Israel and that it has pledged to preserve the balance of power. Nevertheless, there was no indication what the U.S. would do in such an eventuality.

This news item clarifies the essential reason why the State of Israel refuses to withdraw from secure boundaries in exchange for guarantees and peace
