

TORAH HONORS TO JESS WARD, ARTHUR BROWN AND MILTON BERKOWITZ

Jess Ward
Chasan Torah

This year again, three outstanding men of Kehilath Jeshurun have been signaled out for the highest Torah honors of the year. They represent the best traditions of our congregation. Jess Ward, the Chasan Torah, is a Trustee of the congregation and of Ramaz school from which his two sons, Sandy and Ray, were graduated.

A respected and leading entrepreneur in the textile industry, Mr. Ward's specialty has been service to the Jewish community. He has been for many years a Trustee and Director of the West Side Institutional Synagogue and for decades he has been a leading supporter of Yeshiva education both here and in Jerusalem. Retiring and self-effacing in nature it is not an accident that he has devoted much un-sung effort to the Hebrew Free Burial Association of which he is a Vice-President.

Jess Ward was honored twice by the Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregations which he serves as a Director. In 1966 he received the Union's President's Award, while in 1968 he received its highest honor: the Kether Shem Tov award (the crown of a good name). He is complemented beautifully by his illustrious wife, the former Linore Freedman, who served some-time ago as President of the Ramaz Parent's Council and who now is a national Vice-President of the Mizrahi Women's Organization of America.

Arthur Brown
Chasan Bereshith

The honoring of the Ward family is in effect an honor to Kehilath Jeshurun. The family represents the best of our tradition of religious commitment and communal responsibility.

Our Chasan Bereshith is another splendid son of Kehilath Jeshurun, Arthur Brown, the senior brother in the Brown family. The founder and President of Arthur Brown & Bro., the largest art supply company in the country, Mr. Brown utilizes his position for service to the Jewish community.

He is a leader in the U.J.A. campaign in the artist's materials industry and has been cited by the industry for his exceptional service. He is also a leader of the Federation campaign in his industry.

Milton Berkowitz
Chasan Maftir

Mr. Brown serves as a Founder and Director of Boys Town in Jerusalem. His wife, the former Laura Eisenkramer, serves also as a director of this prestigious institution.

Together with his wife he has endowed an important research fund at the Massachusetts General Hospital which they support generously. Mr. Brown and his family have been also among the leading supporters of Kehilath Jeshurun and Ramaz School. His son Peter is a member and worshipper at our congregation.

It is a proud moment for us to honor this distinguished son of a distinguished K. J. family.

Our Chasan Maftir, a younger man, in keeping with an established tradition of our congregation, is Milton Berkowitz. A graduate of the Lowell Textile Institute with a Master's degree from the Wharton School of Business at the University of Pennsylvania, Milton is in the textile business.

He serves as the President of the Couple's Club of the congregation, and as Vice-President of the Men's Club. He has been a leading spirit and worker in the planning of all aspects of our centennial celebration.

The father of two fine students in Ramaz, Jerald and Steven, each of whom reads the Torah regularly in our congregation, Milton is also ably assisted by his wife, the former Barbara Rogell, who serves as Recording Secretary of the Sisterhood, and as a leading personality in the Ramaz Parent's Council.

To see this family in the synagogue week after week is to realize that the future of Kehilath Jeshurun is well established in the hands of committed Jews who understand the role of the synagogue and communal leadership.

The grooms of the law will be inducted into their offices at the Musaf service on Shemini Atzeret. We wish them and their families all of the wonderful blessings of the Torah and we pray that they will be worthy of their honor for many years to come.

Academic Advancement—

Congratulations to Aaron Holzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham I. Holzer, upon his graduation with a Masters Degree from City College. The degree was received Cum Laude in the field of Computer Science. Aaron will attend Yale University this fall for his Doctoral studies.

Condolence—

We extend our condolences to our esteemed Trustee Mr. Joseph Schlang upon the passing of his beloved mother Blanche (Schlang) Nirenstein.

We pray that the entire family be spared further sorrow for many years to come.

In Memorium
Jacob Rudd

We mourn the passing of an esteemed, long time member of Kehilath Jeshurun. Jacob Rudd goes back over four decades in the congregation to the days when it entered the modern era.

He was among the pioneers in adult education, the Men's Club and Ramaz. His dear wife was president of the Sisterhood in its formative years.

A man of intellect, wide interest and an infectious joie de vivre, he will be remembered for his love of our congregation and his contributions to it.

May his wife and son be spared further sorrow in the years to come.

The Reading of Kohellet

Once again, this year, the congregation will be privileged to hear a group of teen-agers read the scroll of Kohellet. The reading will be held on Saturday, September 30th, Shemini Atzeret. The reading will begin at approximately 9:30 o'clock.

May we ask all of our worshippers to arrive early on Shemini Atzeret morning in order to have the pleasure of listening to these boys read while at the same time giving them a measure of moral support.

Put Your Best Foot Forward

The day of atonement is, among other things, a day of self-denial. In addition to avoiding food and drink, Jewish tradition calls for refraining from the wearing of leather shoes.

The reason for this provision is that wearing a proper pair of shoes makes us feel complete and perfectly groomed. Women especially know that the right pair of shoes gives style and elegance to any outfit.

It is precisely the absence of that feeling of completeness which is called for on the Day of Atonement. Out of the spirit of moderate self-denial, we are moved to prayer, penitence and wholesome introspection.

Today it is easy to conform to Jewish tradition in this matter. Non-leather footwear is readily available in shops in every neighborhood. Why not put your best foot forward this Yom Kippur by renewing this meaningful practice of our people?

Candle Lighting in the Synagogue

Provision has been made for the kindling of candles in the Synagogue House on Yom Kippur eve, Sunday, September 17th. Ladies will be directed to the proper place designated for the kindling of candles upon entering the synagogue building.

Did You Order A Lulav and Etrog?

Time is rapidly growing short for the Sukkoth Festival. If you would like Mr. Rosenberg to obtain a Lulav and Etrog for you please call him without delay. He will be happy to arrange this observance of the holiday for you.

NOTES ON THE CHILDREN FOR SIMCHATH TORAH

Simchath Torah at KJ is a family festival with the children occupying the center of the stage. May we ask that you remember the following matters regarding the children:

1. Please bring them to the auditorium on Saturday evening between 6:15 and 6:30, not before.
2. Please do not bring children younger than four to the auditorium. If you would like to bring your younger children, please have them sit with you.

3. Once the children have come to the auditorium, please leave their care to us. They will be escorted to the main synagogue with flags and Torahs and after the service they will receive their holiday sweets.

Sunday Morning, October 1st

Above all, do not forget the glorious celebration on Simchath Torah day. On that occasion, we conduct another full round of Hakafoth with singing and dancing for all; we complete the reading of one cycle of the Torah and we launch a new cycle; we call the Chasanim to their respective honors; and the entire celebration is capped by a delightful buffet kiddush where the mood of rejoicing, punctuated by singing and dancing of old and young alike, is quite inspiring.

Simchath Torah, day and night, are religious occasions of great joy in which every family should participate fully. Come and celebrate with us!
