

JOSEPH SCHLANG, BENJAMIN MANDELKER AND IRWIN ROBINS ANNOUNCED AS CHATANIM FOR SIMCHAT TORAH: INDUCTION ON SH'MINI ATZERET MORNING

JOSEPH SCHLANG
Chatan Torah

Our Chatan Torah who will be honored by being called for the last Aliyah of the year, completing the Torah Scroll, is a Trustee of the congregation who has been active in Jewish communal life for over forty years. A Founder of Albert Einstein College of Medicine and a Master Builder of Yeshiva University, he also served as Secretary and Treasurer of the Synagogue Council of America. He organized the Junior League of the Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregations of America in 1934.

Mr. Schlang published the Graphic History of the Jewish Heritage and helped to organize the Patron Program of the Metropolitan Opera in this city. He is now distributing opera films, one of which, "The Life of Giuseppe Verdi" will open next month at the Trans Lux Theatre in our neighborhood. The proceeds from this film work will go towards a variety of cultural projects.

Mr. Schlang, who is married to the former Bernice Breitbart, and whose son, Stuart, is a member of our congregation and a graduate of Ramaz, has been conducting two radio programs during the past two years: "Opera Stars of Tomorrow" and "101 Ways to Improve New York City."

BENJAMIN MANDELKER
Chatan Bereishit

Benjamin Mandelker, who will be called for the honor of beginning a new cycle of reading the Torah, is a former National Vice President of the UOJCA, who has a long career in labor law and in service to the Jewish community.

A graduate of Columbia College as a member of Phi Beta Kappa and the recipient of a law degree from Harvard, Ben served as a Captain in the 94th Infantry Division of the U. S. Army during World War II, earned a Bronze Star Medal and five Battle Stars. On the home front, he married the former Evelyn Ostow, who, following an active career in communal affairs on Long Island, now serves as a legal paraprofessional in Ben's office.

Our Chatan Bereishit was the first President of the Hebrew Academy of Nassau County, a school that was patterned after Ramaz. He was also the Chairman of the Committee for Kashruth at the Long Island Jewish Hospital.

Ben's son, Philip, who recently left on Aliyah, is serving in the Legal Division of the Finance Ministry in Israel. His daughter, Ronne, is a member of the Faculty in English and Social Studies at the Ramaz Upper School.

IRWIN B. ROBINS
Chatan Maftir

Our Chatan Maftir is a graduate of Amherst College, Cum Laude, and a member of Phi Beta Kappa. A former Lieutenant in the U. S. Air Force, Irwin Robins was graduated Cum Laude from Harvard Law School and served as Assistant U. S. Attorney in the southern district of New York. He is currently a partner in the firm Otterbourg, Steindler, Houston & Rosen.

A Trustee of the congregation and a member of its newly formed Executive Committee, Mr. Robins served as Secretary of the Commission on Synagogue Relations of Federation. He has also been a member of the Board of Jewish Education in this city and he is a member of the Manhattan Cabinet of UJA.

Last year, during the crisis following the Yom Kippur War, he was instrumental in raising tens of thousands of dollars for UJA and Israel Bonds among members of our congregation.

Irwin is married to the former Susan Starkman. Their two daughters Frannie and Hannah are both students in Ramaz. Sue Robins serves as an Editor of the Ramaz Parents Council's publication "The Ram Kol."

Children Are Our Special Guests on Simchat Torah

On Tuesday evening, October 8, the children will be our special guests for the Simchat Torah Celebration in the Main Synagogue. We ask parents to bring their children from age 4 through 11 to the Kamber Auditorium at 6:00 P.M.

In the auditorium they will be organized by our youth leadership staff and they will be escorted into the Main Synagogue with flags and Torahs in accordance with well established custom. The children will be able to dance during the Hakafoth and we hope that their joy and enthusiasm will inspire the adults to greater spiritual heights this year.

Wednesday Morning, October 9th

Please do not forget the special role of children and adults on Simchat Torah day. On that occasion we conduct another full round of Hakafoth with singing and dancing for all. Plan to arrive before 10 o'clock in order to enjoy all of the festivities. Remember that the congregation will be guests at a special buffet kiddush in honor of our Chasanim.

Simchat Torah, day and night, are religious occasions of great joy in which every family should participate fully. Please come and celebrate with us!

And Something New This Year HAKAFOT UNLIMITED

Following the Tuesday night Simchat Torah service and Hakafoth in the main synagogue, there will be a buffet dinner in the Kamber Auditorium for all who would like to participate in the K. J. version of HAKAFOT UNLIMITED.

Dance and song, spirit and religious enthusiasm will prevail as we rejoice with the Torah Scrolls on into the night. Children and adults are invited to join for as long as they wish — and their energy holds out.

May HAKAFOT UNLIMITED symbolize a year of joy and happiness unlimited with the Torah as our inspiration!

TO REPLACE DESTROYED TORAH SCROLLS

In late June of this year, the synagogue in Khust, a town near the Russian-Hungarian border, was partially destroyed by fire. All of the Torah Scrolls were lost in the flames. The circumstances were quite suspicious. Khust is a one-factory town. The workers in the factory proposed to use the Jewish synagogue as a sports palace. The resident Jews refused. A press campaign ensued with no sign of weakness on the part of the Jews. Shortly thereafter, the synagogue was victimized by fire.

The Jews have returned to their synagogue and persist in davening there. But they have no Torah from which to read . . . The New York Conference on Soviet Jewry has asked our congregation to provide a Torah for the Jews of Khust. That Torah will be presented to Elie Wiesel, who was born in the area of Khust, at a Simchat Torah Festival of Freedom on Sunday, October 6 at 12:30 in Gracie Mansion Park, 84th Street and East End Avenue.

We are asking the entire congregation and the student body and parent body of Ramaz School to gather in front of our synagogue at 11:30 that Sunday morning in order to march with the Torah to the Rally at Gracie Mansion Park.

PLEASE JOIN US
IN FRONT OF KEHILATH JESHURUN
ON SUNDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 6 AT 11:30
FOR A MARCH WITH OUR TORAH
TO BE PRESENTED TO ELIE WIESEL
FOR THE JEWS OF KHUST

ONE TORAH

ONE PEOPLE

As arrangements for our Sukkah meals near completion, we wish to express our special thanks to our devoted members Sidney Kotimsky and Nellie and Louis Orwasher for their assistance in making our Sukkah meals so economically feasible and traditionally outstanding.

Bat Mitzvah*Rhonda Smokler

Mazel Tov to Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Smokler, upon the forthcoming celebration of the Bat Mitzvah of their daughter, Rhonda, on Shabbat, September 28, in our congregation.

Rhonda, who is a student in the Bi-cultural Day School in Stamford, will deliver a D'var Torah at a Seudah Shlishit that will be held in her honor between Mincha and Ma'ariv that Shabbat. The entire congregation is invited to join in celebrating this happy milestone.

Our very special congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Gross, the proud grandparents of Rhonda. May they continue to have nachas from their family for many years to come.

Bar Mitzvah*Douglas Propp

Mazel tov to our members Mr. Seymour Propp and Mrs. Eve Propp upon the forthcoming Bar Mitzvah of their son Douglas which will take place in our synagogue on Sunday, Chol Ha-Moed, October 6.

We are happy to congratulate Douglas and his family on this significant milestone in his young life. We hope he will grow up in the best tradition of Torah, Chuppah and Ma'asim Tovim.

Bar Mitzvah*Joshua Nash

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs.
Jack Nash upon the forthcoming Bar Mitzvah of their son, Joshua, which will take place on Shabbat morning,
October 12, Shabbat Bereishit.

Joshua, who is an honor student in Form II of Ramaz, (where his father serves as Treasurer of the Board of Trustees) will read the entire Torah Portion and Haftarah on the Shabbat of his Bar Mitzvah.

The congregation is invited to be the guests of the Nash Family for Kiddush following services.
