NEW RAMAZ BUILDING DEDICATED AT IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES

The new Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein Upper School of Ramaz, which is housed in the Morris and Ida Newman Educational Center on East 78th Street, between Park and Madison Avenues, was formally dedicated before over 600 enthusiastic friends of the school on Sunday morning, November 2. A capacity crowd filled the new auditorium, enjoyed the moving and well-timed program and then proceeded through the building to see the beautiful facilities which are now available to students in the Ramaz Upper School.

The program was headed by the Attorney General of the State of New York, Hon. Robert Abrams, a parent at the school; Hon. Harrison J. Goldin, Comptroller of the City of New York and an alumnus of Ramaz; and Hon. Paul Kedar, Consul General of the State of Israel in New York, who is also a Ramaz parent. Lawrence A. Kobrin, Chairman of the Board of Ramaz School and himself an alumnus of one of the earliest classes in Ramaz and a current parent, presided.

One of the most moving moments in the program came when Jacob Chachkes, President of the High School G.O., spoke to the assembly. He was followed by Victoria Lindenbaum, of the 8th grade who is President of the Student Organization of the Junior High School and who delivered an inspiring message. Vicki is the daughter of two Ramaz alumni Belda and Marcel Lindenbaum and the granddaughter of Mrs. Rita Kaufman in whose husband's memory the auditorium in the new school will be named.

The climactic moment in the program came when the Principal of the School, Rabbi Haskel Lookstein,

RABBI IRVING GREENBERG TO BE FIRST SCHOLAR IN RESIDENCE ON SHABBAT OF THANKSGIVING WEEKEND

FAMILY DINNER TO BE HELD FRIDAY EVENING

The first Scholar in Residence Shabbat and Friday Evening Family Dinner will be held November 28 and 29, the Shabbat of Thanksgiving weekend. Dr. Irving "Yitz" Greenberg will make three presentations to the congregation. Following Kabbalat Shabbat services and a Friday Evening Family Dinner, Professor Greenberg will speak on: ORTHODOX JUDAISM AND THE HOLOCAUST. He will discuss the religious challenge of the holocaust, including the split among orthodox thinkers about how to comprehend such an event.

On Saturday morning, Rabbi Greenberg will speak from the pulpit during Shabbat morning services on: THE RELIGIOUS SIGNIFICANCE OF THE STATE OF ISRAEL. He will discuss this in the light of a new redemption in our lifetime and explore the theology and halakha of the State. He will consider Israel as the proof of the ongoing covenant and analyze the religious significance of the secular.

Between Mincha (4:00 PM) and Maariv services on Saturday afternoon, Dr. Greenberg will speak on the topic: TOWARD A NEW BIRTH OF HALAKHA, OR THE HALAKHA OF EVERYDAY LIFE. Halakhic living and the incorporating of the holocaust and Israel into the religious calendar and in daily observance will highlight a discussion that includes case studies in making everyday life holy. He will focus on affluence, sexuality and the work ethic.

"YITZ GREENBERG"

An ordained orthodox rabbi, scholar and prominent lecturer, "Yitz" Greenberg is one of the most dynamic and outspoken leaders of the American Jewish community today. He em-

Irving Greenberg

An eminent thinker and educator in the field of holocaust studies, he has served as Director of the President's Commission on the Holocaust.

A CALL FOR BLOOD DONORS FOR THE KJ/RAMAZ BLOOD BANK

THIS SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 16

On Sunday, November 16, from 9:15 am until 2:30 pm, the Fifth Annual Blood Drive of Kehilath Jeshurun and Ramaz will be held in the Synagogue House. This once-a-year event provides coverage to the entire congregational and school family for the complete blood needs of all members, staff, parents, students and their immediate families, during the course of the year.

In order for us to have that coverage, we must have a very substantial number of donors. People between the age of 17 and 65 are eligible to give blood. We call, therefore, upon all eligible members of the KJ/Ramaz family to do their part in making this Blood Bank possible.

From the point of view of good citizenship, from the point of view of Jewish law, which considers the giving of blood an act of pikuach nefesh, and from the point of view of community solidarity, the donation of blood on Sunday, November 16, represents an important mitzvah, obligation and privilege. We hope that everyone who can give, will give.

You may call either Abe Esses (744-8136) or the Synagogue Office (427-1000) if you have any questions.

UNIVERSITY SHABBAT WEEKEND TO BE HELD FEBRUARY 6-7, 1981

As a new program of the congregation this year, the Shabbat Weekend of February 6 & 7, 1981 will be devoted to hosting university students.

Those welcome to register for the Weekend are students of the KJ community, Ramaz alumni, and out-of-town students studying in the New York area. It is open to collegians, graduate students, and those in professional schools. The program will include meals at the synagogue, leadership of services, as well as educational, discussion and social activities.

Those wishing to participate or who wish to suggest the names of people who should be invited should call Mr. David Bernstein at the synagogue number, 427-1000, extension 307, or at home in the evenings at 289-4921. Families who can house visiting students that weekend are also asked to call in order to volunteer their homes.

RABBI IRVING GREENBERG

In 1974, Dr. Greenberg and Elie Wiesel founded the National Jewish Resource Center, a unique Jewish institution dedicated to the creative survival of Jewish life. It reflects Dr. Greenberg's interest in bridging Jewish religious and organizational divisions for the sake of klal Yisroel, the unity and totality of the Jewish people.

Rabbi Greenberg was graduated summa cum laude from Brooklyn College, and earned both Master's and Doctorate Degrees from Harvard University. He directed the Brandeis University Hillel Foundation, served as Associate Professor of History at Yeshiva University and as Fulbright Professor of History at Tel Aviv University. While serving as the Rabbi of the Riverdale Jewish Center, he founded the Department of Jewish Studies at City College of the City University of New York. Dr. Greenberg currently serves as a Professor in that department.

KJ BOY SCOUT TROOP NAMED FOR MICHAEL BARANY

Boy Scout Troop number 613, sponsored by the Men's Club of the congregation, has been renamed the Michael Barany Boy Scout Troop.

Men's Club President, Norman Bulow, remarked that "it is a fitting way to remember Michael", and recalled his many years of dedication and work in developing the youth of our community. "Michael Barany was a man well loved by the boys of our troop, and his loving concern for others was expressed, in part, by the work he did on behalf of the Kehilath Jeshurun Boy Scout Troop."

Boys of the congregation and of Ramaz are invited to participate in the troop, which meets each Monday evening at 7:15 pm in the Synagogue/Lower School gymnasium.

SISTERHOOD OPEN MEETING

THIS COMING MONDAY
November 17

All women of the community are cordially invited to attend a Sisterhood Open Meeting on Monday, November 17, in the Kamber Auditorium. The meeting will begin at 12:30 pm, and a light luncheon will be served.

The program for this coming meeting will be, "THE MENORAH, Its Artistic Evolution," a slide lecture and presentation by Mrs. Esther Nussbaum.

Mrs. Nussbaum, a former guide at the Jewish Museum, is currently head librarian of the Joseph H. Lookstein Upper School of Ramaz, and writes extensively on Judaic art.

We look forward to seeing you there.

RAMAZ DEDICATION

spoke warmly of the participation of so many people in this extraordinary effort, cited a number of the leading workers by name and then introduced Mrs. Joseph H. Lookstein and Mrs. Ida Newman while he spoke about the spirit and philosophies of life of both our late Senior Rabbi and the late Morris Newman.

Mrs. Lookstein and Mrs. Newman then unveiled a beautiful scroll which contains an excerpt from the prayer of King Solomon spoken on the occasion of the dedication of his Temple in Jerusalem. That scroll, which in its English translation says "May God's blessings attend this house of study always", will hang prominently in the new building and reflect our collective prayers that the new Ramaz Upper School serve the needs of thousands of students in the years to come, educating them to become leaders of the Jewish people.

The dedication ceremonies were prepared by a committee headed by Myron M. Poloner and including, Pearl Hack, Marcella Rosen, Yvonne Koppel and Alfred M. Frankel.

The building effort was led by Melvin D. Newman, Chairman of the Building Committee; A. Phillip Goldsmith, Chairman, Finance Committee, Arthur C. Silverman, Chairman, Construction Committee, Prof. Louis Henkin, Chairman, Program Committee, and Belda Lindenbaum, Chairman, Publicity Committee.

RABBI ADIN STEINSALTZ TO BE GUEST SPEAKER

THIS SHABBAT MORNING, NOVEMBER 15

We are proud to announce that the world renowned scholar, Rabbi Adin Steinsaltz, editor of the Steinsaltz Talmud, will occupy our pulpit as the guest of Rabbi Haskel Lookstein this Shabbat morning, November 15. To give you an idea of what kind of an extraordinary man Rabbi Steinsaltz is, we quote from a full page article on him which appeared in Newsweek last May. "Jewish lore is filled with tales of formidable rabbis. Probably none living today can compare in genius and influence to Adin Steinsaltz, 42, whose extraordinary gifts as scholar, teacher, scientist, writer, mystic and social critic have attracted disciples from every faction in Israeli society. Steinsaltz is renowned chiefly for producing - on his own - a modern Hebrew translation of the Babylonian Talmud that, together with his lucid commentary, will for the first time make that library of Jewish theology and law accessible to the average person. He has also written widely on science fiction, archaeology, mysticism and zoology and he is currently advising Jerusalem's Biblical Zoo on the reconstruction of Noah's Ark.

"When he is not writing, Steinsaltz is talking. Last year, he spoke at the Aspen Institute for Humanistic Studies and at Yale University. In Jerusalem, his evening seminars, which usually last until two in the morning, attract devoted followers... scholars and students from around the world. A frequent radio commentator, Steinsaltz discourses easily on contemporary films, French literature and Israeli politics. 'He is a genius of the highest order, marvels Dan Segre, a Professor of International Relations of Haifa University. 'Steinsaltz has the sort of mind that comes around only every couple of thousand years.'"

You are invited to come and listen to this great personality this Shabbat morning at our regular service.

NEW JUDAICA SHOP OPENS IN SYNAGOGUE HOUSE LOBBY

We are pleased to announce that the Judaica Shop, jointly sponsored by the Congregation and Ramaz School, opened its doors officially on Sunday afternoon, November 2. The shop features a wide variety of Judaica, including books, ritual articles, art objects and many other items.

The object of the shop is to provide access to all of these articles to the community on the Upper East Side. It is intended to serve an educational purpose as well as to offer a convenience to shoppers.

The Judaica Shop will be open Monday, Wednesday and Thursday 12 Noon - 5 PM, Tuesday evenings 7 - 9 PM, and Sunday mornings 10 AM - 1 PM. We invite you to come in, to browse around and to purchase those items which are useful to you. With the advent of Chanukah there will be many articles which will be particularly useful as gifts.

Proceeds from the Judaica Shop will be allocated equally to the youth activities of the congregation and the extracurricular programs for the students of Ramaz. Prices will be competitive with those that are charged on the Lower East Side.

The shop is under the direction of Mrs. Nechi Shudofsky and a corps of dedicated volunteers. If there are any who are interested in working at the shop, they are asked to contact Mrs. Shudofsky or Robert Leifert.

Once again this year Mrs. Edgar Trautman worked tirelessly together with a group of talented women from the Sisterhood to decorate the Sukkah with beautiful fruits of a natural and artificial variety. PROCEDURES FOR LIGHTING CHANUKAH CANDLES

Beginning with Tuesday Evening, December 2

While the practice of gift giving has become an integral part of the Festival of Lights, the lights themselves are the principal observance of the holiday and should be highlighted as the central feature of Chanukah in the home.

The following are a few items which should be kept in mind:

1. The Menorah - While one Menorah suffices for the household, it is customary -- and desirable -- for each member of the household to light his own Menorah. This is particularly recommended for the children in the family who will take special delight in kindling their own Chanukah lamps.

2. The Time for Lighting - The candles should be lit as soon as possible after nightfall (30 minutes after sunset). They should be allowed to burn for at least 30 minutes.

On Saturday night at home, the candles are lit after Havdalah. On Friday afternoon, they are lit before the Sabbath candles and they should be large enough so that they will remain lit for about an hour and a half.

3. Arranging the Candles - The candles are set from the right side of the Menorah as the candle lighter faces it. Each night an additional candle is lit.

4. Lighting the Candles - The candles are lit from left to right -- starting with the newest candle first. We begin by lighting the "Shamash." Then the blessings are recited -- three on the first night and two on the other nights. After the blessings are recited, we light the candles by the flame of the "Shamash".

The reason for using the "Shamash" is in order to avoid any practical use of the Chanukah candles. These lights are holy and their sole purpose is a ritual one -- to proclaim the miracle of Chanukah.

5. Concluding Songs - Following the lighting of the candles, we sing ha-Nerot ha-Lalu, which explains the reason for the ceremony, and Maoz Tzur, a ballad which describes in several stanzas how Divine Providence has intervened at various points in history to save us from our enemies.

ADULT EDUCATION PROGRAM ATTRACTS LARGE FOLLOWING

The Adult Education program of the congregation and Ramaz has attracted the largest number of students in many years to a variety of classes and programs. Students may still join courses and shiurim. For further details please contact Robert Leifert at the synagogue office.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank Dr. Nathalie Friedman who is the Chairman of the Adult Education Committee for the congregation and Mrs. Barbara Plasse, the Chairman of Continuing Education for Ramaz School, for their contributions to the success of this year's program. The acceptance which our courses and shiurim have gained is a tribute to their efforts and to the splendid instruction of all of the faculty.

Am HaSefer Group to begin December 7

We are pleased to announce that the Am HaSefer group will begin meeting on Sunday evening, December 7 at 8:00 o'clock. The discussion will center around the book Synagogue Life by Samuel C. Heilman. It will be led by Dr. Nathalie Friedman who holds a Ph.D. in Sociology from Columbia and whose background in this field and in Judaism promises to make the evening a very interesting one. The meeting will be held in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Mortimer J. Blumenthal, 40 East 83rd Street.

This book and the other selections from the Am HaSefer program may be obtained directly through the Judaica Shop.

WORLD GATHERING OF JEWISH HOLOCAUST SURVIVORS

On June 15-18, 1981 the World Gathering of Jewish Holocaust Survivors will take place in Jerusalem, Israel. This event, which is being sponsored by survivors' associations throughout the world, leading Israeli and international Jewish agencies, and the Second Generation: Children of Holocaust Survivors, promises to be one of major historical significance.

The program includes a memorial service at the Yad Vashem memorial museum, gatherings at the kibbutzim founded by survivors of the holocaust, and a candlelight march through the streets of Jerusalem to the Western Wall where a testament of the survivors will be passed on to the second generation. Plans also include special programs for all members of the second generation, who will be coming from around the world to meet one another both at formal sessions and informally.

This gathering, the likes of which will take place only once in the history of mankind, is of crucial importance. First, it serves as a pilgrimage of remembrance. Second, it is a manifestation of the perseverance of the survivors, and the commitment to life they have passed on to their children. Third, and very important in these troubled times, it will serve as an expression of our solidarity with Israel and with our fellow Jews around the world.

For further information, please contact: World Gathering of Holocaust Survivors, One Park Avenue South, Suite 418, NYC, 679-0699. Or, call our member, Chaim Zlotogorski at 874-3791, evenings.

Mrs. Hilda Berger Kaufman Honored by Ner Israel Rabbinical College

We are proud to announce that Mrs. Hilda Berger Kaufman was honored by the dedication in memory of her late husband of the Abe B. Kaufman Memorial Shiur Room at the Ner Israel Rabbinical College in Baltimore, Maryland. The dedication took place on October 15 and represented the gratitude of the Rabbinical School for a substantial gift made by Mrs. Kaufman in memory of her late husband.

We congratulate her on this act of generosity and benevolence and we hope that God will give her many more years in which to serve worthy institutions and causes in so generous and constructive a fashion.

TEENS HELP MOUNT SINAI PATIENTS WITH LULAV AND ETROG

The following letter was received from Rabbi Dr. Charles A. Spirn, Head Chaplain at Mount Sinai Hospital.

On behalf of our hospital, I wish to express to you our sincere thanks for the assistance given to our patients by the young men and women of Kehilath Jeshurun and Ramaz School on Sukkoth. The boys and girls, under the leadership of Stuart Chesner, Youth Director, and Moshe Rosenberg, visited patients in several buildings, enabling them to observe the mitzvah of lulav and etrog.

I wish to add that the reaction of the patients was most heartening. They were full of praise for those "lovable young people" who were both modern and loyal to Jewish tradition. In a sense, it was a Kid-dush Hashem as they reflected credit on Torah and Judaism. May their like increase among our people.

We are indeed proud of our Junior Members for their participation in performing the mitzvah of bikkur cholim.

In Memoriam Dr. Louis H. Berk

We mourn the passing of an esteemed senior member of the congregation. Though shy and retiring by nature, Dr. Louis Berk expressed freely and generously his love for Kehilath Jeshurun and Ramaz by magnanimous gestures of support for both institutions.

Dr. Berk's major quality was that of goodness. He served his patients with great devotion and tenderness without thought of material gain. He looked for opportunities to help people and he practiced generosity toward many worthy causes which were helpful to the Jewish community and the society at large.

We mourn his passing and we extend our condolences to his dear sister and to all members of the bereaved family.

Condolences

We extend our sincere condolences to Mrs. Frances Davidson upon the passing of her beloved brother, Hy Kravitz.

Our heartfelt sympathies to our esteemed member, Mr. Martin Sanders, upon the loss of his beloved mother, Mrs. Mollie Sanders.

Our sincere condolences to Mrs. Rita Kaufman and to Adrian Skydell on the passing of their beloved sister, Edith Helfand.

Similar expressions to Mr. Sam Gradowski on the passing of his beloved sister.

We hope that the families will be spared further grief for many years to come.

CONTRIBUTORS TO THE NEEDIEST CASES FUND

The following people have recently made contributions to the Sisterhood's Neediest Cases Fund: Mrs. Abraham Kirshon, Mrs. George Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Max Grill, Mrs. Jess Ward, Mrs. Joseph H. Lookstein, Mrs. Samu Zuckerman and Mrs. Abraham Holzer.

Within Our Family

Births

Mazel tov to our members, Dr. and Mrs. Alan Gribetz upon the birth of their first child, Julie Daniele. Our warmest wishes also to the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Israel Friedman, and to the great-grandmothers, Mrs. Joseph H. Lookstein and Mrs. Martha Schacter. May the new arrival grow up in the finest tradition of Torah, chupah and ma'asim tovim and may she be a source of joy and nachas for the entire family.

Mazel tov to Dr. and Mrs. Albert Hornblass on the birth of Elana Rachael. Although they now reside in Englewood, N.J. we still consider them to be very much a part of our congregational family and we rejoice together with them on this blessed event. May she grow up in the best tradition of Torah, chupah and ma'asim tovim and, like her parents, may she one day practice bikkur cholim in an exemplary fashion.

Mazel tov to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ackman, our members who are now living in Miami Beach, upon the birth of their second daughter, Anya. We hope she will add to the sunshine in Florida and that she and her sister grow up in the best tradition of Torah, chupah and ma'asim tovim.

Engagement

Mazel tov to Mr. and Mrs. Leon Moed on the engagement of their daughter Anne to Shelley Golombeck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hy Golombeck of Lawrence, Long Island. We hope that the wedding will take place in joy and blessing.

Communal Honors

Mazel tov to our esteemed young member, Dr. Michael Sigall, upon his designation as Chatan Maftir in the Jewish Center this past Simchat Torah. We understand that Michael, who celebrated his Bar Mitzvah in our synagogue more than two decades ago, acquitted himself admirably in his reading of the Haftorah at the Jewish Center. Congratulations also to his proud parents, our Trustee, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Sigall.

B'NAI MITZVAH

Evan Markowitz

Mazel Tov to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Markowitz on the Bar Mitzvah of their sons, Evan and Jared, which took place in our synagogue this past Sunday. The twins are both students in the Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein Upper

Jared Markowitz

School of Ramaz. During Rosh Chodesh services on Sunday, Jared davened Shacharit and Hallel, and Evan read from the Torah and davened Musaf.

Member in Print

We are pleased to congratulate our devoted member, Mrs. Hannah Adler, who was the subject of a feature story in the Daily News on Sunday, September 14 entitled: "Meet the 'Mrs.' Behind the Labels." The story told the history of Mrs. Adler's food business which she started together with her late husband, our former Ritual Director, Mr. Joseph E. Adler, almost thirty years ago. It was a beautiful tribute to her and to her late husband.

Stuart Chesner Engaged to Rachel Shudofsky

We are happy to congratulate our Youth Director, Stuart Chesner, a graduate of Yeshiva College, upon his engagement to Rachel Shudofsky, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Noam Shudofsky. This simcha is truly a family one for the entire Kehilath Jeshurun and Ramaz community of which both the prospective bride and groom are an integral part. Our mazel tov also to Stuart's father, Mr. Jack Chesner.

We hope that the wedding will take place in blessing and good fortune and that the young couple will establish a household in Israel which will bring much happiness to them and pride and nachas to their parents and the entire KJ Ramaz family.

Honors to Mortimer J. Propp

We are proud to announce that our esteemed member, Mortimer J. Propp, was honored by the Advisory Council of the New York Board of Rabbis at a brunch in the Sukkah in the Sky on Sunday, September 28. The Sukkah in the Sky is the brainchild of our devoted member Jack D. Weiler and serves as the center for many activities in the New York community during Sukkot.

We are proud that Mr. Propp earned this honor and we congratulate him upon being the instrument for galvanizing support for the New York Board of Rabbis and all that it does for our community.

May he continue to merit the approbation of New York Jewry for many healthy, happy and productive years to come.

A JEWISH COOKBOOK FOR CHILDREN

We are happy to congratulate our member, Ronnie Steinkoler, on the publication of her book "A Jewish Cookbook for Children" by Simon and Schuster. The book is everything which the title suggests and will no doubt make many children happy and delight their mothers and fathers as well.

Congratulations to the author and our best wishes to the many children who will enjoy this marvelous book.
