From The Rabbi's Desk

"For this commandment which I command thee this day, it is not too hard for thee neither is it far off. It is not in heaven, that thou shouldest say: Who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it unto us, and make us to hear it, that we may do it? Neither is it beyond the sea, that thou shouldest say: Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it unto us, and make us to hear it, that we may do it? But the word is very nigh unto thee, in thy mouth and in thy heart, that thou mayest do it".

With these words, Moses gave his final charge to the people of Israel. Do not believe for one moment that proper Jewish living is fashioned for saints, devoid of human desires and fallibilities. Our Torah is a Torah of life and takes into careful account man's frailties and weaknesses. To the contrary, it is the avowed purpose of our Law to implant within the individual the strength and spiritual fortitude so necessary in a turbulent world of crises and sorrows. To be a Torah-true Jew, does not mean that you must be perfect; you must merely strive for self-improvement by following the path of ethical, moral and religious living transmitted by our fathers.

Do not think for one instant that proper Jewish living was only meant for the European community beyond the sea, but is no longer valid or relevant in twentieth century America. Rarely throughout our glorious history has the Yeshiva movement flourished so well as at present, and rarely can we boast of so many totally observant Jews in the forefront of American intellectual life. The last decade has proven that the God of Judaism is far from dead, and need only be searched for by the sincere heart in order to be rediscovered.

President's Message

Now that vacations are over, and we are all returning to our normal routines, I am officially calling all of our faithful workers back to their assignments.

Speaking of vacations, I was privileged to spend mine in Israel. While there I noticed how important the years of planning were to the new State. I also learned that while planning is a difficult job, carrying out the plans is even harder.

The Israelis working together have accomplished so very much that I could not attempt, nor am I qualified to write, an adequate description. Suffice it to say that it was proven that it can be done.

Applying this same determination to our endeavor, I know that we too, will be successful.

The years of preparation and planning for a L.S.S., are almost at an end and soon the working of these plans must commence. In order to proceed we need participants in our program.

How many times have you thought about what talent and experience you could lend to L.S.S., and, for one reason or another, time passed without your coming forward.

With the New Year almost here, this is the best time to join us in one or more of our activities.

My family and I extend our best wishes for a Happy and Healthy New Year and look forward to seeing you at the services.

Daniel Mars, President

HIGH HOLIDAY LAW AND LORE

1. Elul — the month preceding Rosh Hashona (beginning of the year), the Shofar is blown each morning and everyone must prepare himself for the Days of Awe (Yamim Noraim). Our Sages tell us: "The thirty days of Elul to what are they compared? To the thirty days of grace which a court grants a debtor in which to pay his debts and be freed of his creditors."
2. Kever Avot — the graves of the ancestors. It is customary during this period of sobriety to visit the cemetery and strengthen one's ties with the ideals of the faith of our fathers.
3. Tsedaka — it is also the custom to liberally distribute charity to the poor. Compassion for one's fellow man is the prerequisite for any communication with God.
4. Hadlakot Ha Nerot — the woman of the house lights candles in honor of the New Year so that warmth and love may permeate the home. Just before the nightfall which ushers in each evening of Rosh Hashona and Yom Kippur (Day of Forgiveness), the following two blessings are recited upon the lights:
 "Blessed art Thou, Lord our God, Ruler of the Universe, who has sanctified us with His Commandments and has commanded us to kindle the Festival lights (on Yom Kippur substitute: "the lights of the Day of Forgiveness)."
 "Blessed art Thou, Lord our God, Ruler of the Universe, Who has kept us in life, preserved us and enabled us to reach this season."
5. Aseret Yemai Teshuva — The Ten Days of Penitence or Return. These are the days between and including Rosh Hashona and Yom Kippur. It is customary to greet one another during this period with the blessing: May you be inscribed and sealed for a good year (Ketiva Vechatima Tova). It is important to note that one can only be Divinely forgiven for those transgressions committed against God. It is therefore incumbent upon every individual to seek forgiveness of his fellow man during these days for any wrongdoing he may have committed against him in the past year. The people of Israel must stand before God with hearts purified by love of man.
6. Upon returning from the Synagogue on the evenings of Rosh Hashona there is a beautiful custom to first dip chalah and then a slice of apple into some honey. This special hors d'oeuvre is eaten with the prayer: "May it by Thy will to renew unto us a good and sweet year."

High Holiday Law and Lore (Cont'd)

7. All the sacred vestments in the Synagogue — as well as the robe (or Kittel) worn by the Rabbi and Cantors — are white during these ten days. The Talmud presents the following reason:

"When men are summoned before an earthly ruler to defend themselves against some charge, they appear downcast and are often garbed in the black robes of mourners. Israel, however, appears before God on the Days of Judgment in the white garb of a feast in the confidence that as soon as one returns to God in repentance there will be immediate forgiveness."

White is likewise a symbol of purity, and evokes the prophetic verse: "Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall become as white as snow."

8. Tashlich — literally, to cast away (ones transgressions). The first afternoon of Rosh Hashona usually marks the fascinating Tashlich ceremony, which takes place on the bank of a river or near some body of fresh water. Appropriate prayers are recited and then it is customary for each person to shake the corner of his garment. This is to indicate that it is in man's power to shake himself free of sin and to mend his ways. In the presence of an ever-flowing stream one is immediately moved to think of the infinitude of God and in contrast the finitude of man.
9. Shofar or ram's horn. It is the highlight of the Rosh Hashona morning services and signals the conclusion of the Yom Kippur fast. Among the many reasons for the blowing of the Shofar are:
- (a) To proclaim the sovereignty of God on the anniversary of the creation of the world (The Kings of Israel were coronated amidst the sounding of the ram's horn).
 - (b) To rouse the slumbering individual from his sleep of complacency and to stir him to repentance.
 - (c) To remind God (as well as ourselves) of Abraham's willingness to sacrifice Isaac, his only son. The Bible relates that a ram was substituted for the beloved Isaac. In such a manner do we hope to be saved from impending death.
10. Shabbat Shuva — The Sabbath of Return, which is the designation for the Sabbath between Rosh Hashona and Yom Kippur. Its name is taken from the haftorah (portion from the Prophets) chanted on that Sabbath, which begins: "Shuva Yisroel, Return O Israel unto the Lord Thy God" (Hosea 14:2ff).
11. Yom Kippur Fast — In ordaining Yom Kippur, the Bible states: "You shall afflict your souls." This is the basis of fasting, the abstinence from food and drink on the Day of Forgiveness. The purpose of the fast is to emphasize the spiritual nature of man and demonstrate the Godlike quality in each of us. Children usually begin to fast at the age of thirteen.
12. Kol Nidre — "All the vows," the beginning of the dramatic prayer which inaugurates Yom Kippur. The haunting and inspiring melody speaks of God's absolution of religious vows. It is conjectured that the music was composed during the Spanish Inquisition (1492), when many Jews were forced to publicly vow their allegiance to Christianity.
13. Non-Leather Shoes — It is customary to wear non-leather shoes during the entire Yom Kippur period. This is because:
- (a) leather is a sign of luxury
 - (b) The death of an animal is necessary in the production of leather shoes. On Yom Kippur we must be made aware of the dependence upon a Higher Source which unites all of God's creatures.

I want to take this opportunity of offering deepest and most appreciative thanks to the officers and board members who worked so faithfully and diligently in planning the various projects.

Leshanah Tovah Tikatayvu — A good, healthful year to you and your dear ones!

Sonia Chesnin, President

During the High Holy Days, we pray for the Jewish people collectively and even seek forgiveness for any possible sin committed by any one member of our faith. This is to emphasize our deep feeling of religious solidarity and group responsibility. "Every Israelite is a co-signer for his fellow Jew", declare our Sages. It is for this reason that especially at this season our thoughts turn to the plight of our brethren in Russia who are unable to enjoy the religious freedom so basic to the American way of life.

Our Cantor Sherwood Goffin has recently cut a record for the Student Struggle for Soviet Jewry, an organization for which our Rabbi serves as an Advisor. All proceeds are going to the SSJ, which is attempting to awaken world public opinion to the problem of the Jews in the Soviet Union.

Please call or write the Synagogue to obtain the record. Remittance One dollar.

NEWS AND NOTES

Did you see our Rabbi, Danny Mars and Stanley Getzler on Joe Franklin's Memory Lane T.V. program?

The leadership of our Synagogue is extremely photogenic, and may very well sanctify the Television Industry with some Judaism . . .

Welcome Back to:

Mr. and Mrs. Danny Mars and Shifra (formerly Sally), Mr. and Mrs. Wolf Reichard and Family, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Weidberg from the Holy Land of Israel.

Rumor has it that they expect to alleviate the crowded Synagogue conditions by establishing a branch of the L.S.S. in Jerusalem . . . Miracles happened every day this summer. How else can you explain Elmer Klein's ability to maintain the morning minyan despite everyone's vacation. It's a wonder that his stocks did not soar! . . . Our Cantor Sherwood Goffin was graduated from Yeshiva University Cantorial Institute and was elected Secretary of the Cantorial Council. It appears as though he is also about to receive his P.A. around January time . . .

Would High Holy Day tickets ever be sold if not for Bernie, David, Maria, Estelle, Barry, and Sonia Chesnin.

Would this Bulletin have ever appeared if not for Ruth Belsky and Fanny Lindey?

The Men's Club of Lincoln Square Synagogue, will hold a Special Meeting for Nomination and Election of Officers, on Wednesday evening, September 21, 1966, at 8:00 P.M., at the Synagogue, 150 West End Ave., N.Y.

Our New Neighbors

If you, our reader, or any of your friends, have just moved into our Neighborhood, we would like to invite you to meet our Rabbi, who will be glad to discuss with you the aims and goals of our Synagogue and assist you in any way possible. Please call 874-6100, for an appointment.

From the Rabbi's Desk (Cont'd)

The Kotzker Rabbi once asked his students to tell him the distance between East and West. Dissatisfied with their answers, he said, "Only one small drei (turn)": Likewise did Moses explain to his people that the Torah is not too far off; the individual can bridge the distance between himself and his faith by one small drei, one minor change in direction.

As we stand at the threshold of a New Year, my heart is filled with overwhelming thanks for what has been a most inspiring twelve months. The nearness of Torah living to each of us, the vitality of the message of God's word, has been graphically demonstrated each Sabbath morning by the extra rows of seats lining the hall of our temporary Synagogue. The joyous singing and heartfelt petition rising from the innermost being of each congregant cannot but move the most skeptical observer.

May it be God's will that more and more of our Synagogue family may be inspired to change their direction during the coming year and experience that "which is in thy mouth and in thy heart, that those mayest do it" for the glory of God and of Israel.
