Our synagogue, Men's Club and Women's League are one. Each operates in specific areas yet all three work towards a common goal, the strength, growth and resilience of our programs for spiritual, ethical and moral sanity.

Our combined leaderships, from the elected officials to the hardworking chairpersons, fascinate, by their selfless and concentrated efforts, any objective observer. Such complete immersion by individuals in behalf of others generates respect, each for the other, in a contemporary society notorious for its disrespect towards those divine and human values which have at least to this age differentiated between the civilized and the barbaric. Ours has been a work of love which carries its own compensation — a self-satisfying end in itself.

Our hope for the successful continuation of the Young Israel program is well founded and rooted in the very structures of our three groups. With the exception of an occasional change, which is a necessary infusion of new blood into our respective bodies, each group is practically self-perpetuating. And the reasons for their longevity are as valid as they are pregnant with hope. The officials and the chairpersons who are involved in the nitty gritty operations of organizational affairs, with the exception of the new and welcome infusions, will be the same tomorrow as they have been in many yesteryears. This is the hope, and the strength, for a viable future in an uncertain world outside our immediate and mutual concerns.

It is also an accepted truism that the future belongs to the young. The very concept for the founding of the Young Israel movement over sixty years ago had within it the important element of rebellious Youth with a capital "Y" which was fighting to preserve the teachings and the practice of orthodoxy within a secular society. At the same time, and with dogged determination it insisted, and successfully so, on excising the abuses that had crept into the old synagogue — from indecorous services to commercialism. Your new administration will have at its helm such a youth. Bernie Horowitz is chronologically the youngest president we have had in many years. He also comes to us fortified with other and most unusual qualities and qualifications. He was nurtured within a Young Israel environment. He is well versed, understands and appreciates and respects the Young Israel purpose and ethic. He is liaison Vice President of our National Council. I leave you in better hands!

Betty Waldman, on the graduation of her son David from Queens College with a BA in Education, where he made the Dean's list.

Women's League

From The President

With our successful White Elephant Sale on Sunday, May 16th, under the very able chairmanship of Evelyn Hein (who had been well tutored by our extremely capable and experienced ex-chairman, Rose Parness) and her conscientious and hard-working committee, we concluded this year's activities in a financially rewarding fashion.

The same excellent report applies to the Tuesday Koffee Klotches thanks to the efforts of Sara Kaufman, chairman, and her very dedicated committee; Raffle project, with Hattie Haiman and Fay August, Co-chairman; L'Maan Hayered project, with Fannie Brown, chairman.

All work, of course, is accomplished with the main goal of supporting our Synagogue, but during the entire working year, all eyes lead in the direction of our Annual Donor Supper. On Monday evening, May 17th, all officers, members and friends, who earned their invitations to this gala evening, were treated to a most pleasant and entertaining event at Arele's of Queens. Dorothy Haimowitz, vibrant and dynamic chairman, and her wonderful committee planned a stupendous "night of nights" for us and we will long remember how enjoyable it was.

Projects like ours just don't happen. They are the result of much planning, effort and hard work and I am deeply grateful to all chairmen and committee members for their cooperative endeavors on behalf of the Women's League.

Likewise, all officers are to be commended for assuming their share of the responsibilities in the scheme of Women's League activities.

My thanks, as well, to all members who attend meetings and functions regularly. It is my hope that new and old members alike will enjoy a meaningful and rewarding place in the Women's League by either continuing to be active or starting the next year with a resolve to become active.

Special thanks to Rabbi Maurice L. Schwartz for being available whenever we have requested him to participate in

Women's League News

June comes in with the roar of the sea, the call of the wild, the beckoning of the wide open road, the lazy relaxing in the burning sun, and the paid up fee at the pool — who can resist this temptation?

With the joint installation, June 14th, of all our affiliated organizations that are actually the upkeep body of our shul, we bring to a close another successful year in Parkchester's history.

The Donor Committee, with untiring Dotty Haimowitz as Chairlady, and after running such a fabulous affair, deserves a pause that refreshes.

The Boutique super salesladies with Gert Miller as Chairlady, did a fantastic business through the year, they deserve a pause that refreshes.

The Koffee Klotch ladies with Sara Kaufman as Chairlady, did a luscious job of feeding us with a disregard of calories, which brought in quite a revenue, they deserve a pause that refreshes.

The White Elephant Salespeople with Evelyn Hein this year's Chairlady, did an unbelievable, impossible, tremendous one day sale, they deserve a pause that refreshes.

The Raffle Committee, with Hattie our programs, and to Hattie Lesser for her clerical help.

Our fondest good wishes for a happy and well deserved retirement in Florida to Dorothy and David Haimowitz. Gert Miller has accepted the chairmanship of the Donor project and she and her co-chairmen Pauline Lehman and Esther Harap, will continue its direction — very successfully, as in the past!

Congratulations to our newly elected slate of officers as well as to Bernard Horowitz, President of the Synagogue and Harry Brooks, President for the 11th year of the Men's Club, and all their officers. Together, we will all continue our good work on behalf of the Synagogue.

A pleasant and happy summer to all officers, members and friends of the Women's League, Young Israel of Parkchester.

Women's League News (Cont'd)

Haiman and Fay August, also had a successful season, they deserve a pause that refreshes.

And all you members that come to meetings, that helped at the different affairs, deserve a pause that refreshes.

Soooo go to all your summer outings, but in the sojourn give a thought, now and then, to the coming year and if you think of some good ideas to improve our activities, write it down and bring it in when next we meet.

As chairlady of L'Maan Hayered, I want you all to know that I WILL be open for the summer, of sending Condolence and Happy Occasion Cards. So, in the event that you need to send a card, call me at TA 9-4021.

Have a most enjoyable, healthy and happy summer, says my husband Joe, and

Men's Club

From The President

On Wednesday, May 12th, our Annual Meeting election of officers took place and I would like to congratulate the entire new administration. My thanks to the officers and active members of the last administration who helped to make our functions and projects successful.

Our main project "THE BASEBALL BOOSTER CLUB" is now in full swing. You will soon receive tickets for the "WORLD SERIES", please accept them and try to sell some to your friends. This year we will extend our activities into the "FOOTBALL SEASON", more about it in the next mailing.

My congratulations to Bernard Horowitz, elected President of the Synagogue and to his slate of officers, and to my dear wife Norma, reelected President of the Women's League for a third year, and her slate of officers and promise my fullest cooperation.

Since this is my 11th year as President of the Men's Club I have the following message to my members:

PLEASE BECOME ACTIVE.
DO YOU JUST BELONG?

Are you an active member, the kind that would be missed?

Or are you just contented your name is on the list?

Do you attend the meetings and mingle with the flock?

Or do you stay at home and criticize and knock?

Come to the meetings often and help with hand and heart.

Don't just be a member — take an active part.

As our season draws to a close, may I extend to my officers, members and their families best wishes for a HAPPY AND HEALTHY SUMMER.
