que el rey de Francia lo hizo en el año de 1360. La guerra entre los dos países duró más de veinte años y se considera como la guerra más larga de la historia. Los ingleses fueron derrotados por los franceses en la batalla de Cravant en 1364. Los ingleses perdieron su control sobre Normandía y se retiraron a Inglaterra. La guerra continuó hasta 1453 cuando los franceses lograron expulsar a los ingleses de Francia.
